HEAD-ON COLLISION — Four young men were injured in a head-on collision late Tuesday night on the Lyonsville Road near Stone Ridge. One of the four, Robert Anderson, 19, of High Falls, was transferred to Albany Hospital. Others involved were Richard Rosenkrantz, 20, of High Falls, reported apparently serious at Kingston Hospital; Edward Pope, 18, of Stone Ridge

Streifer Says Reade Made TV Stock Demand

Kingston Cablevision, Inc., now involved in litigation over franchise rights granted the firm on Jan. 6 by the Common Council, was threatened with a lawsuit by Walter Reade, theatre magnate, when he was refused stock ownership, Attorney Abraham Streifer said today.

Hopes for Future In Cancer to Be Crusade Subject

Dr. William H. Wehr, assistant director of the Roswell Park Memorial Institute, Buffalo, will be the principal speaker at the kick-off dinner of the Ulster County Cancer Crusade at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Dr. Wehr has been associated with the Buffalo institute since 1931. His training has been in all phases of the cancer problem.

He was chief of gynecology from 1936 to 1940 and chief of the breast service from 1940 to 1952. Since that date he has served in his present position.

Associate in Surgery
Dr. Wehr is a member of the board of directors of the Erie County Chapter and of the New York State Division of the American Cancer Society and an associate in surgery at the Medical School of the University of Buffalo.

The title of his address will be "The Cancer Problem and Hopes for the Future."

Presiding at the dinner will be (Continued on Page 10, Col. 5)

4 Young Men Hurt In Tuesday Crash Near Stone Ridge

Four young men were injured in a head-on collision on the Lyonsville road near Stone Ridge late Tuesday night—two of them seriously.

Richard Rosenkrantz, 20, of High Falls, was reported apparently serious this morning at Kingston Hospital. He suffered contusions of the chest, an injury to the larynx and other hurts.

Robert Anderson, 19, of High Falls, was taken to Kingston Hospital, then transferred to the Albany General Hospital. No report was available this morning. Hospital authorities told The Freeman that young Anderson was being X-rayed.

Extent of Injuries
He reportedly suffered a fractured right shoulder, head injuries, brain damage, lacerations of the face and a fractured right ankle. He was believed to be in serious condition.

Floyd Dedors of Cottekill and Edward Pope, 18, both of Stone Ridge, were reported in fair condition today at Benedictine Hospital.

Dedors suffered multiple lacerations of the face, scalp and right knee and possible internal injuries. Pope suffered fractures of the right femur, lacerations of the left knee and lacerations and contusions of the face.

Police Version
Kingston and Ellenville State Police reported that a 1950 sedan owned by Edward Malone of Stone Ridge operated by Pope, was proceeding south when it was in collision with a 1953 sedan owned and operated by Rosenkrantz traveling north.

They described the collision as head-on in the middle of the road. Circumstances were still unknown since the victims could not be immediately interrogated.

The accident occurred at 10:25 p. m. Investigating were Troopers Joseph Cullen and Fred Cooper of the Ellenville State Police and Trooper Joseph Ventriglia of the Kingston barracks.

Trial of Woman For Passing School Bus Off 10 Days

The trial of Mrs. Rudolph Geiselman, 42, of Rosendale, who was arrested two weeks ago for allegedly passing a stopped school bus, has been adjourned for 10 days at request of her counsel.

Mrs. Geiselman, her attorney, George Beck of Kingston, and Attorney James J. Murray of Ellenville, representing the district attorney's office, appeared today before Justice of the Peace John L. Smith, town of Marbletown. The adjournment was granted with the consent of the DA's office.

Apparently Good Today

An 11-year-old Stone Ridge girl, Elizabeth Cecilia Derringer, daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Derringer, was struck by Mrs. Geiselman's car as the child was crossing Route 209 to board the school bus.

The girl, who was taken to Kingston Hospital in serious condition, was reported as apparently good today. She reportedly suffered back and internal injuries.

Kingston state police reported that the girl was struck by the left front end of a 1957 sedan operated by Mrs. Geiselman as the child was crossing the highway. (Continued on Page 10, Col. 5)

Rosendale Elects Vaughn, Glusker Gets Third Term

New York State lost its only woman mayor in a close election in Rosendale Tuesday and Pine Hill got a mayor who wasn't even on the ticket—by the slim margin of two votes.

The village of Ellenville re-elected Mayor Eugene Glusker (D) for a third term in a comparatively light vote. Incumbent trustees, Frank E. Greco (R) and William M. Eckert (D) were also re-elected.

No Opposition
Slates of candidates in Saugerties and New Paltz were elected without opposition.

Mrs. Catherine O'Leary, Rosendale's Democratic mayor, lost a close election to Former Mayor John W. Vaughn by 10 votes—187 to 177. Mrs. O'Leary became the state's only woman mayor when she was elected to that post two years ago. Vaughn ran on the Independent ticket.

Served Three Terms
Vaughn served as mayor of the village for three terms, 1947-53. A total of 316 votes were cast this year against 271 in the last election.

Incumbent Trustee Harold Krom (Ind.) was re-elected, defeating Raymond Temple (D) by a vote of 197 to 163.

Vaughn and Krom will take office next month.

Unopposed, He Loses
Frank Sanchis, running unopposed for mayor of Pine Hill, lost the election to Charles Griffin who has served as mayor of the village for the past 26 years.

Griffin, who operates a garage, had indicated this year he would like to retire from the position and had supported Sanchis. However, when the votes were counted Griffin had received 51 write-in votes to 49 for Sanchis, who is proprietor of the Pine Hill Press.

Griffin told The Freeman today that he has decided to withdraw from the political scene but under the circumstances was seriously considering accepting the office for his 14th term.

Sort of 'Drafted'
Having been "drafted," he feels some sense of obligation to the electorate, he says. He described the turn of events as "very complimentary" to him personally and indicated he would probably accept the office and "go along with the parade."

John T. Wallace, a candidate for trustee on the Sanchis ticket, defeated David Silverman by a vote of 62 to 31. They were running for the trustee position vacated by the retirement of Conrad Smith.

Mayor Glusker was reelected mayor, defeating his Republican opponent, Salvatore S. Spadaro, manager of Shadowland Theatre, Ellenville, by 145 votes—754 to 609.

Ike Signs Hawaii Bill 50th Could Be in Union by Next July

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed the bill to make Hawaii the 50th state.

With the bill's signing, Hawaii could, by taking fast action, get officially into the Union by next July. This would be in time to send members to the present session of Congress. October is more likely, however. It took six months to add Alaska's 49th star to the flag.

30 Days to Set Vote
Territorial Gov. William Quinn has 30 days after formal notification of the President's approval in which to issue a proclamation of elections.

A primary must be held no less than 60 nor more than 90 days after the proclamation. General election must come no later than 40 days after the primary.

Eisenhower's proclamation making Hawaii the 50th state will come after the election results are officially certified. There is no fixed time limit on the presidential action.

Final Action March 12
Final congressional action on the admission of Hawaii came March 12 in a 325-89 House vote. The Senate voted 76-15 a day earlier. Eisenhower got the bill March 13 but used only four of the 10 days he had for signing or vetoing. Sunday's don't count.

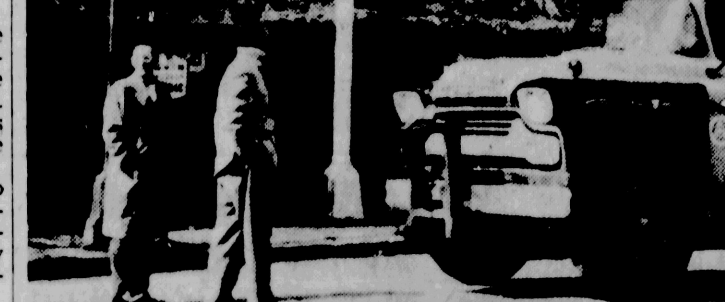

In addition to electing a governor and lieutenant governor, state legislators, two U.S. senators and one House member in Congress, Hawaii must vote on three propositions:

1. Shall Hawaii immediately be admitted into the Union as a state?
2. Does Hawaii consent to the exclusion of Palmyra Island from the boundary of the new state?
3. Does Hawaii accept statehood under all other conditions specified in the statehood bill, including land grants and reservations and one House member instead of two?

There will be a second representative after the 1960 census reapportionment.

Rejection Unlikely
Rejection on any one of the three propositions would nullify the Statehood Act and leave Hawaii in territorial status, but there was no doubt that all three propositions would be approved.

The territory has been pleading for statehood for half a century and its state constitution is already adopted.

GETTING THE GO-AHEAD—A motorist entering the New Jersey Turnpike at Newark Airport interchange gets the go-ahead signal instead of the usual ticket after a strike by maintenance men and toll collectors left most interchanges unmanned. Flat toll rates for trucks and cars were charged at exits, where supervisory employees were placed in charge of booths. (NEA Telephoto)

Must Tell Why in Court

Ex-Hardenbergh Road Boss Refuses Answers

Former Town Superintendent of Highways Fred D. Shaver, Town of Hardenbergh, is the latest witness to refuse to give testimony before the special grand jury investigating road oil kickbacks, according to papers filed this afternoon in the county clerk's office.

A show cause order signed by Supreme Court Justice Henry Clay Greenberg directs that Shaver appear in court Thursday at 10:30 a. m. and show cause why he would not be adjudged guilty of a criminal contempt of court and be punished therefore in accordance with the law.

Before Jury Tuesday
With the order is a copy of the special grand jury minutes of March 17 when Shaver appeared under subpoena before the grand jury and refused to answer any questions, even as to his name and address.

The only question put to him by Special Attorney General Bernard Tompkins which Shaver did answer was a question whether he knew Morgan D. Ryan, former officer of the Ulster Bituminous Inc., road oil distributors.

Heard of Ryan
"I have heard of him," Shaver replied.

Appearance of Shaver before Justice Greenberg on Thursday is in response to an application by Special Prosecutor Tompkins. The portion of the grand jury minutes of Shaver's appearance on March 17 before the grand jury were released to the public under Justice Greenberg's order.

The application reveals Shaver appeared Feb. 28, 1958, at the office of former acting commissioner of investigations Arthur Reuter and while under oath, "admitted that he had received kickbacks from both Morgan D. Ryan, representing Ulster Bi-

Fear Cuts Will Hurt Objectives Twining, McElroy Are Heard Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff told Congress today any cut in military foreign aid would cut hopes of modernizing and improving friendly forces receiving assistance.

Gen. Nathan F. Twining urged the House Foreign Affairs Committee to approve President Eisenhower's $3,930,000,000 foreign aid program, specifically its $1,600,000,000 military component.

Sees Critical Mistake

Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy joined in support of the proposal, saying "it would be a critical mistake to curtail the program, because of isolated instances of waste and inefficiency, representing a small percentage of the total."

Twining said any limitations or reductions in the program would virtually eliminate all modernization and force improvement needed to accomplish the military assistance program force objectives.

Seeks Data on War

Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio) said advance of the hearing that he felt the defense chiefs should be questioned about what kind of war the United States would fight if the Berlin crisis exploded.

Hays, a committee member, said he wanted to question the military officials "to clarify President Eisenhower's apparent statement that we would not use ground troops in Europe."

Says Statements Confusing

Hays said this statement at an Eisenhower news conference, coupled with earlier administration statements that the United States would not fire the first intercontinental ballistic missile "might be taken as a blank check."

"I don't think the President meant that," Hays said, "but it seems to me he may well be misunderstood by (Soviet Premier Nikita) Khrushchev. I think it would be very dangerous to leave things as confused as they are now."

Hays said in an interview that if the United States really does not mean to use ground troops in any possible European clash, the argument that military aid is needed to maintain a shield of such troops loses most of its value.

Sees Bigger Cuts

Rep. Thomas E. Morgan (D-Pa.), chairman of the House Committee, indicated meanwhile that this year's aid program may be cut even more sharply than the $50-million-dollar cut in Eisenhower's requests made last year.

He told a television audience that "we hope we will have slightly less amounts in the entire bill this year than we had last year (and) that we are going to get more for our dollar." He said some countries have been given more aid funds than they can absorb.

Police Watch Strikers

HAZARD, Ky. (AP) — Reinforced state police units patrolled the hills of eastern Kentucky today in the wake of two outbursts of force in coal strikes which have killed more than 7,000 men.

A massive crowd of strikers swarmed over a coal tiple in nearby Letcher County Tuesday injuring at least four men, and four police.

Assembly Approves Sept. 15 Primary; Senate to Follow

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Despite Democratic protests, Republicans in the Legislature are steaming ahead with their plans to hold the statewide primary election Sept. 15.

The GOP-controlled Assembly, in a move designed to foment trouble for Carmine G. DeSapio, Tuesday approved the September date on a 90-56 party vote. They beat down Democratic attempts to set a June 23 primary, at least for New York City.

The Senate is certain to concur with the Assembly.

The primary fracas came as both houses of the Legislature plowed through heavy work-loads in an effort to adjourn next Wednesday.

The GOP, it was understood, figures the late primary will give the Democratic party's Liberal wing more time to push a revolt against DeSapio, who leads Tammany Hall, the Manhattan party organization.

DeSapio's party leadership might topple if he loses command of a Greenwich Village district in a primary fight.

The Senate gave final legislative approval to a one-year postponement of a new chauffeurs' license system.

The effective date of the act, which is under fire from farmers, would be delayed until May 31, 1960.

The bill, aimed at greater control of tractor-trailer drivers, would set up four classes of chauffeurs' licenses. Farmers had complained that it would make them take out such permits for operating farm vehicles on highways.

The year's delay is to permit further study.

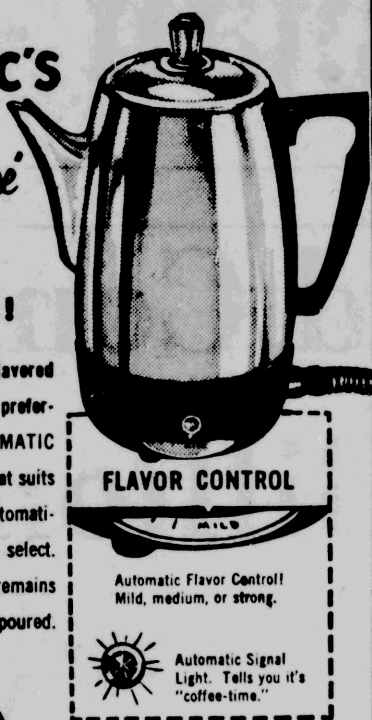

The Assembly passed, 80-68, a bill to authorize court injunctions against organizational picketing.

Revenue Service Seeks Auditors And Accountants

Accountants and auditors at beginning salaries of $4,040 and $4,980 a year are needed in the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Defense, the General Accounting Office, and in other federal agencies in Washington, D. C., and throughout the United States, the U. S. Civil Service Commission announced today.

Applicants must have had appropriate accounting education or experience. Those wishing to qualify on the basis of experience rather than education will be required to demonstrate satisfactory knowledge of accounting principles by passing a written test. Senior students may apply for these positions before they graduate but they may not enter on duty until all required courses have been completed.

Promotional opportunities are excellent. The first promotion is usually after six months or a year of satisfactory service.

Full information is contained in Announcement No. 188 which may be obtained from Leo W. Darwak, examiner-in-charge, located at Central Post Office, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. Applications will be accepted until further notice at the places listed in the announcement.

Paying Your Income Tax

Every Exemption Justly Claimed Means $600 Cut

Editor's note—For many taxpayers, exemptions represent the leftmost savings they can make in filing their federal returns. This article, third of a series on the income tax, tells you about the various exemptions you may claim.

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Every exemption you can justly claim—in filing your 1958 income tax return—means $600 knocked off your income before the remainder can be taxed.

You may also save money by knowing the different rules covering not only husbands and wives but certain widows and widowers and persons who can qualify as "head of household."

Start with husbands and wives: Each person filing a return gets a $600 exemption for himself if he is under 65, 1,200 if he's over 65, and another $600 if he's blind. He gets the same exemptions for his wife if she files jointly with him.

You can claim her exemptions, in addition to your own, if she had no income and you alone file a return or if she files jointly with you, whether or not she had income.

Wife Must File

Your wife must file a return—either separately or jointly with you—if she was under 65 and had $600 income, or $1,200 if she was over 65.

If she files separately, she claims her own exemption on her return and you can't claim any exemption for her on your return. Hereafter, to avoid repetition about age, we'll talk about people under 65. No one, of course, who had under $600 income has to file a return at all. The same goes for a wife with less than $600 income.

Special Rule

But there's a special rule on wives. If your wife had income, no matter how small, but doesn't file jointly with you, you can't claim the $600 exemption for her.

Ordinarily a husband and wife save by filing jointly because of the split method of figuring tax on a joint return.

If you got married any time in 1958—even as late as Dec. 31—you can claim the exemption for your wife, provided she meets the requirements listed above.

If your wife died anytime in 1958 and had no income—and if you didn't remarry during the year—you can still claim an exemption for her on your return.

If she died during 1958 and did have income—and if you didn't remarry during the year—you can file a joint return, reporting her income and yours and claiming exemptions for her and yourself.

If you were divorced or legally separated from your wife at the end of the year you may not claim her as an exemption even though you provided more than half her support in 1958.

Certain widows and widowers: If your wife (or husband) died in 1956 or 1957 you get a tax break—by being allowed to figure your tax in schedule two, page 15 of the form 1040 instruction sheet, which is the same method used by couples filing jointly—provided you fit these rules:

Your wife must have died in 1956 or 1957; you must have been entitled to file a joint return with her for the year in which she died; you have not remarried; you furnish over half the maintenance of your home which, except for temporary absences, is the principal abode of your child or stepchild for whom you claim an exemption.

Use Tax Schedule

If you meet these requirements, figure your tax by including only your income, exemptions, or deductions—no exemption for your deceased spouse. Use tax schedule two on page 15 of the form 1040 instruction sheet or the tax table on page 16 to find your tax rate.

Head of household: If you qualify as "head of household" you get a lower tax rate than if you filed as a single person. You use schedule 3, page 15, of the instruction sheet, or the tax table, page 16.

You must have been unmarried (or legally separated) as of Dec. 31, 1958; and you must have provided more than half the cost of maintaining a household for the entire year for at least one other person who is related to you. The test varies with the relationship to the other person.

Dependent Qualification

If that person was your mother (or father) she must qualify as your dependent. And you must have maintained a home for her, either in your house or somewhere else. Note: Paying for a parent in a home for the aged is not maintaining a household for her.

If the relative for whom you maintained a household is your unmarried child, grandchild, or stepchild, that child must have lived under the same roof with you, although your child doesn't have to qualify as your dependent.

All other relatives must live with you and qualify as dependents. (Next: Claiming exemptions for dependents.)

Navy Announces Openings for Supply Officers

The Kingston Navy Recruiting Station announced today that there are new openings in the supply corps officer candidate program. The specific objective of the program is to develop adequate numbers of career officers in the Navy Supply Corps field.

In order to qualify, a candidate must be a graduate of an accredited college or university and hold a bachelor's degree. He must have reached his 19th but not his 27th birthday. After completing 16 weeks indoctrination at Newport, R. I., he is commissioned and is sent to Athens, Ga., for six months instruction in the Navy supply system.

Some positions comparable to the Navy Supply Corps in civilian life would be in traffic management, purchasing and merchandising, accounting and related positions in the business field.

For further information the local Navy recruiters may be contacted at U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Central Post Office, Room 209, 496 Broadway.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Somewhere high in Rockefeller Center, NBC officials and lawyers and agents were discussing Nanette Fabray's career on television next season in terms of four big special shows and bank thousands of dollars and so forth.

Down the street in a restaurant Nanette Fabray had pushed aside her scrambled eggs and was showing a fellow pictures of her son, Jaime, aged 5 months.

"Now about this contract," the fellow said.

"Here's a good one," said Miss Fabray, who prefers to be known as Mrs. Ranaid MacDougall. "See the way he puts his feet together and lines up his toes?"

Miss Fabray returned to New York for the first time in 16 months with her husband, writer-director Ranaid MacDougall, who is here on business connected with his new movie, "The World, The Flesh and the Devil," starring Harry Belafonte. While here she was taping a Perry Como show to be seen next Saturday.

Her appearance on the Como Show will be her first on television in more than a year except for the occasion a while ago when Dinah Shore gave her a shower on her show for—yes, Jaime.

"I'll tell you why I think I'm so content," said Miss Fabray. "I've had a career before marriage and so I can't feel frustrated, as some women appear to be. By that I don't mean that my career is necessarily finished. But I'll tell you when it would be."

"If my husband ever says to me, 'Nan, come home,' well, I'd just go home. Because home is the most important thing in the world to me."

The contract now under discussion would present Miss Fabray in at least four special shows from either Hollywood or New York.

And what will she do on the Como Show? "Show him pictures of Jaime."

In Crash Sues City

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The owner of a freighter that rammed and destroyed a city lift-bridge during a flood has named the city as a defendant in a $340,000 federal court suit.

Also named in the suit were the Kinsman Transit Co. of Cleveland and a local dock owner.

The suit was brought Tuesday by the Midland Steamship Line of Cleveland.

Midland claims its ship was knocked from its mooring in the Buffalo River by a Kinsman ship that was torn from a dock during the height of a flood last January.

Midland charges the city was negligent in failing to raise the bridge in time.

NEW YORK (AP)—A Brooklyn judge asked AFL-CIO President George Meany today to set up a job-training program in American prisons.

Kings County Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz said that because men paroled from prison have no job training, six out of every 10 land back behind bars.

Unless both organized labor and management roll up their sleeves and lend a real helping hand," Leibowitz wrote to Meany, "an army of more than three million habitual criminals that now infests the United States will, we are told, more than double in a relatively short time."

He told Meany that the curse of prison is idleness—that most prisoners loaf away their time because no useful skills are taught and no real work is done.

Leibowitz also called for a fair wage to be paid prisoners under a productive prison work program. He said the salary would pay for a prisoner's keep, provide for the support of his family, and give him a nest egg to fall back on after his release.

The judge's letter was made public through the Middle Atlantic States Conference on Correction in connection with its meeting here.

Leibowitz blamed both organized labor and management for shutting the door on prisoners who are released, refusing them a chance at employment.

ACLU Is Against Bill to Relieve News Disclosures

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Civil Liberties Union has gone on record opposing all pending legislation to relieve reporters of the responsibility of disclosing sources of information when ordered to do so by a court.

The ACLU said Tuesday it doubts if the issue could ever be settled by legislation.

After a 15-month study, the ACLU said it found a basic conflict between the public's right, under the First Amendment of the Constitution, to a free flow of information and the right of a litigant or a defendant in court to compel testimony that would help his case.

Neither bills recently introduced in the New York Legislature nor one in Congress would resolve this conflict, the ACLU said.

The issue was raised anew when Marie Torre, syndicated radio and television columnist for The New York Herald Tribune, served a 10-day jail sentence on contempt of court charges for failing to tell a court the source of some information she published.

State to Dissolve Buddies Inc., for Fraudulent Claims

NEW YORK (AP) — The state attorney general's office accuses Buddies Inc. of dissipating all but $3,200 of $28,000 reportedly raised since 1956 to provide dogs for blind children.

None of the money went to any charitable purpose, the office of Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz said today. It began action in State Supreme Court to dissolve the corporation.

Buddies Inc. also represented fraudulently that it maintained a model kennel and school where blind children were taught to care for and train dogs, the court affidavit said.

The affidavit said the corporation listed Gen. Douglas MacArthur as honorary chairman and the late Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright as founder. It said the generals had "done nothing" for the organization, however.

Anthony Eugene Lupino of The Bronx, was named as executive director of the corporation and Earl W. Brown of Westfield, N.J., as president.

The corporation has offices in Manhattan.

Will Take Two Years For Albany As Capital

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — In a couple of years it should be official—Albany will be the capital of New York State.

A resolution to amend the state Constitution to designate Albany as the capital was approved unanimously by the Assembly Tuesday and sent to the Senate.

Sen. John H. Hughes (R-Syracuse) and Assemblyman Edwin E. Mason (R-Delaware County) sponsors of the measure, noted that there was no law designating a capital.

They said that the only recorded claim Albany had to the title was a legislative resolution of 1878.

The proposed amendment would have to be passed by two, separately elected legislatures and approved by the voters.

Shokan

SHOKAN — Recent callers in the village included James Bartman, Gardiner, who collects old U. S. coins. Bartman and several other residents of the area have formed a numismatic club whose members already have some fine individual collections.

A petition designed to curb speeding on Route 28 throughout Shokan and Ashokan was circulated in the twin villages last week. The petition calls for an extension of the double white line and a maximum speed limit of 30 miles per hour.

Newburgh people calling in the hub of the reservoir country Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Otto Van Tienen, Meadow Hill Road. Van Tienen is a supervisor at the Pepsi-Cola plant in the Orange County metropolis.

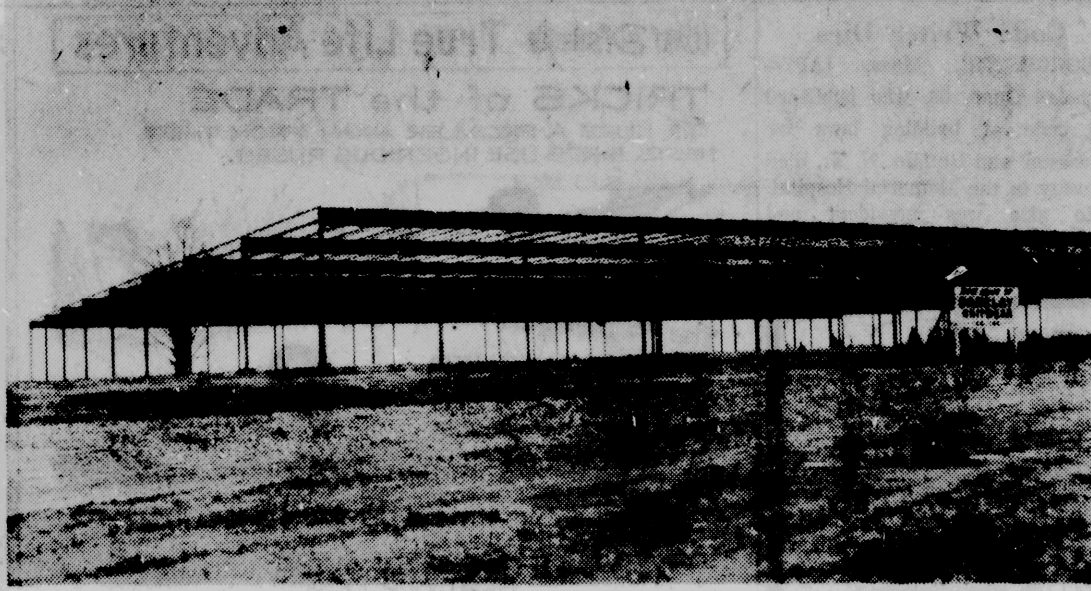

Judge Roger H. Loughran and wife of Old Hurley were in Shokan recently.

One of our older readers who was around these parts when The Freeman was a weekly paper, opines last Wednesday's blizzard was "a mere breeze" compared to the historic Big Blow of 1888. He tells of a U. & D. passenger train being stalled in the railroad cut near Brown Station, where 70 men with shovels worked two days to free the locomotive and cars.

Farm families in the Coons District, up the mountain road, worked with shovels and oxen several days before they could get down to the village via the highway. There was real suffering, too; one family subsisted on dried beans for three days.

Kingston people in town Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Whitford of Wrentham Street. Mrs. Whitford is one of the county's leading landscape painters. Also here was Mrs. Joseph Mooney who as Lennie Every spent her girlhood years on the family farm in Traver Hollow.

Clyde Winchell who was born and brought up in the old village of Shokan had a birthday Monday. A World War I veteran of service with the 22nd U. S. Infantry, he is a 30-year member of Kingston Legion Post 150.

BARCLAY STEEL WORK COMPLETED—Barclay Knitwear Co., Inc., announced today that "excellent progress" is being made on construction of their modern, one-story, 75,000-square foot warehouse and office building in Port Ewen. The foundation and pilings have been completed and the steel superstructure is also finished. Masonry work on the building, located on Route 9W, will begin shortly. Barclay's affiliated firm, Kingston Knitting Mills, 139 Cornell Street, will utilize the area vacated by Barclay to expand their manufacturing operations. Kingston Knitting Mills will completely renovate and modernize its plant and offices. (Freeman photo).

Real Key to Berlin Crisis

West Plans for German Peace Treaty Still in Sketchy Form

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the best kept secrets of 1959—and one of the real keys to the Berlin crisis—is the answer to a question which from now on will be crucial in the news about the Soviet Union, Germany and the West.

Do the Western Allies, despite their public show of solidarity about not budging on Berlin, have anything to offer in the way of ideas that might avoid a military showdown with the Soviets?

It has just been disclosed that the United States has drawn up the outlines of a peace treaty with Germany. Apparently, it is still in very sketchy form.

Ike Hints Ideas

President Eisenhower hinted Monday night in his nationwide broadcast that the Allies do have new ideas and expect some from the U.S.S.R. He said no more. By his silence he drew a curtain across whatever ideas he has in mind.

This was natural enough, since before the United States unveils any plan it would need approval by France, Britain and West Germany. Lack of such approval would indicate the Allies had split wide open.

Some proposals to the Soviet Union—to avoid war over Berlin and seek instead a peaceful solution—will be at the heart of the discussions here this week between Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

From the beginning there have actually been three keys to the Berlin crisis:

1. How determined were the Soviets to back up their demand that the Allies get their troops out of Berlin? That question still is unanswered.

2. Would the Allies yield to this Soviet demand and withdraw? They already have said they would not.

3. If the U.S.S.R. insists the Allies get out but the Allies won't budge, then the only answer is a military showdown unless the two sides negotiate a settlement. But negotiate on what? What can either side propose that the other will accept?

Nobody in the West has yet been able to say positively why Premier Nikita Khrushchev precipitated the crisis in the first place with his demands against the Allies in Berlin.

So no one has been able to say positively how far he is willing to go to back up his demands. He himself has suggested negotiations—including a summit conference—to talk things out.

Eisenhower Monday night indicated a willingness to have a summit meeting next summer, but only if developments justify it.

At this moment—when neither the West nor the Soviet Union has yet produced ideas that would seem acceptable to the other—the situation remains frozen on the Soviet demand for the Allies to vacate Berlin and their public refusal to do so.

Unless they start talking, there will have to be a showdown of some kind. Such a showdown, if it comes, will probably be months away, for it is almost certain the two sides first will do some talking.

This is where the basic question comes in again: Talk on

Four Children Lose Lives As Home Burns

SALAMANCA, N. Y. (AP)—Four children died Tuesday night when fire ripped through their rural home.

Their mother, hands and face badly charred, saved three other children and drove them to a neighbor's house for help.

The survivors were rushed to a hospital in nearby Olean.

The dead were identified as Barbara Hecker, 14, her brother William, 10, and two sisters, Holly 13, and Joan 3.

Mrs. William Hecker was reported in serious condition. One daughter, Christine, 9, was reported in critical condition and two others, Jacqueline, 12, and Loretta, 6 months, were in fair condition.

The mother told police the fire broke out as she was watching television. She said the children were asleep upstairs.

She got to Christine and Loretta first and threw them out of a window, then led Jacqueline out the door.

Firemen arrived to find the two-story wooden farmhouse northeast of here burned to the ground.

Mrs. Hecker's husband was at work in Buffalo when the fire occurred.

Cattaraugus County sheriff's deputies said the fire apparently started in newspapers piled against a stove pipe.

Call Her Patricia

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — She was born on St. Patrick's Day and the folks at Roswell Park Memorial Institute naturally named her Patricia.

And cute as a monkey she is, too. This is no surprise, because that's what she is.

Her mother belongs to the Institute's Department of Experimental Biology.

234 Licenses Are Revoked, Lack Mishap Coverage

Driving licenses and car registrations were revoked for 234 owners involved in accidents while insurance coverage was lapsed during February, the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles reported today. At the same time, 54 others also lost their licenses and registrations for operating their vehicles while coverage was lapsed even though they were not in accidents.

Such revocations are for the period of one year. Similar action was taken against 2,145 non-residents—loss of privilege of driving in New York State—when they were unable to furnish proof of insurance.

Also during February, the Bureau issued 18,662 30-day plate revocations for failure to maintain continuous coverage. These owners must wait 30 days and then purchase new registrations. Similar penalty was avoided by 46,800 other owners who voluntarily surrendered their plates while their insurance was not in force. They may recover their registration upon proof of new coverage, without penalty.

Previous 30-day revocations were rescinded for 6,570 during February when belated proof of insurance was received, as were nine one-year revocations.

Action on Funds Would Wreck Ike's Balanced Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, approving more U.S. funds for the World Bank and International Monetary Fund, has specified they are to come out of next year's budget.

The action, by unanimous vote Tuesday, would wreck President Eisenhower's hopes of a balanced budget for the year beginning July 1. The President had asked for the funds for the current fiscal year, and had included the spending in the deficit of nearly 13 billion dollars he forecast for the fiscal year ending June 30.

For the next year, Eisenhower submitted a budget precariously balanced on the assumption that Congress would provide increased gasoline taxes and postal revenues, actions that now seem unlikely.

But the Senate Committee, approving the proposed $1,375,000,000 increase in the U.S. subscription to the International Monetary Fund, specified it shall come out of the new budget.

A proposed increase of $2,175,000,000 in capital stock of the World Bank would not affect the budget directly.

Republican leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois expressed surprise at the committee's action. He said that if this means the Treasury must pay out $1,375,000,000 additional in the year beginning July 1, "obviously it means the budget will be unbalanced."

Wagner Assails GOP; Says City Is Short-Changed

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner says the people of this Democratic city are being "short-changed" by the Republicans in control at Albany.

He accuses GOP leaders of "an amazing amount of concern for the bankers and the brokers and the bookmakers and correspondingly little for the people of the City of New York."

Wagner, angered at Albany's rejection of some of his administration's city tax proposals, assailed the GOP leaders Tuesday in a statement approved by the entire City Board of Estimate.

Gov. Rockefeller and leaders of the Legislature turned down Monday Wagner's proposal for city taxes on stock transfers and on bank checks. They approved other tax proposals designed to raise an additional 115½ million dollars.

The city's proposal for legalization and taxation of off-track betting on horse races also has been rejected.

Proponents of the bet plan had argued that, in addition to helping to raise added revenue needed by the city, it would put bookmakers out of business and do much to wipe out corruption.

In addition to rejection of the tax proposals, Wagner was stirred by a Republican proposal at Albany for a "Little Hoover Commission" to investigate the city's management and finances.

Vols Talk Over Radio Progress, July Convention

A report on installation of two-way-radio was one of the main topics under discussion at the March meeting of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association Tuesday night when the association was guest of the Town of Plattekill Fire Companies and Gardiner.

Attending the meeting was Major H. Edgar Timmerman, Ulster County director of Civil Defense. Major Timmerman spoke on preparedness and asked for the fullest cooperation by the firemen.

Nearing Completion
It was reported that installation of the radio equipment was progressing in southern Ulster in the Walker Valley, Wallkill, Marlboro area and installation throughout the county is shortly to be completed.

There were 27 companies represented with an attendance of approximately 100 members. Attendance was cut down by inclement weather.

There was also a discussion on the coming county convention which will be held in Rosendale in July. There will be four trophies awarded at the annual which will be held on Saturday, July 25 at 5 p. m. Further details of the awards will be released as arrangements are completed by the Parade Committee.

Honors Arthur Rice
When the meeting adjourned it did so out of respect to the memory of Arthur Rice, West Hurley, who was serving as president of the Ulster County Fire Police Association at the time of his sudden death.

The April meeting of the Association will be held on April 21, at the Vly with the Vly-Arwood Fire Company serving as a host.

A social time followed the business meeting.

Accountants Hear Of Direct Costing

Members and guests attending the regular technical meeting of Mid-Hudson Chapter of National Association of Accountants at the Nelson House Monday evening heard Dr. Raymond P. Marple, assistant secretary of National Association of Accountants, New York, discuss "Direct Costing."

Dr. Marple traced the inception of direct costing to a manuscript published in the N. A. A. bulletin of January 15, 1936 on the topic "What did I earn last month?" It described a method of costing that improved information to management, but recognition started slowly.

In 1953 the Association published a research study on direct costing and interest began to grow. Dr. Marple commented that he just returned from Cleveland, Ohio where the N. A. A. had conducted a very successful subject conference on "experience with direct costing." In his opinion this subject is well on its way, and in time will be generally accepted, particularly for internal management purposes.

The concept of direct costing recognizes the distinction between variable or out-of-pocket

Lions Told of Findings

Archaeologist Uncovers Indian Bones in 209 Area

Passing motorists have observed for some weeks a man with a shovel and simple equipment digging in the fields on Route 209 between Hurley and Kingston.

The mysterious gentleman, James Burggraf, an archaeologist, told the Kingston Lions Club at its Tuesday luncheon meeting that he has been digging in Indian burial sites.

Under State Auspices
Excavating under the auspices of the New York State Archaeological Association, Burggraf has uncovered the bones of five Indians, lying in the familiar curled position, and a number of artifacts, such as flint spearheads, pottery, etc.

Burggraf, who works alone with shovel, trowel and sieve, discovered that the site in which he is now digging is stratified, a fresh layer of soil each year washing over the area from a nearby hillside.

Burggraf told his audience that the early Indians of four or five thousand years ago were a hunting people. They had no pottery and no crops living by the spear. Pottery and the bow and arrow were introduced about two or three thousand years ago.

Some 1,000 Years Old
He said the skeletons he has dug up are about 800 to 1,000 years old. He ships a bone sample to Chicago where specialists check its age by a carbon process. The carbon content of the bone decreases at a steady and calculable rate, losing approximately 50 per cent in 30,000 years.

Burggraf, who was archaeologist at Bear Mountain State Park from 1935 to 1941, said the top 12 inches of soil has been turned up by the plow but that beneath this is about 30 inches of undisturbed earth in which he found the skeletons and other relics of a bygone era.

He will dig for at least another season in the area, he said. Burggraf was introduced by Robert Schwenk, program chairman. George Svirsky, president, presided.

IBM Names Myers To Owego Post; With Local Plant

Frank F. Myers of Endicott has been appointed project engineer, flight line test planning, at the Owego plant of the International Business Machines Corporation.

Myers joined IBM Poughkeepsie in June 1952 as a technical engineer in defense engineering. In May 1954 he was assigned to test equipment engineering for Project HIGH, now known as SAGE. In February 1955, he was transferred to IBM Kingston, was appointed associate engineer in January 1956 and project engineer in August 1956. He came to IBM Owego as a staff engineer in October 1957.

A native of Salina, Kansas, he was graduated from Salina High School and received Bachelor of Science degrees in Electrical Engineering and Business Administration in 1952 from Kansas State College at Manhattan, Kansas. He has completed several courses at the IBM School and under the Management Training Program.

He is a veteran of World War II, serving more than two years with the U. S. Navy as an electronics technician with the rank of Petty Officer third class, and is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Endicott and the Owego IBM Club Recreation Association. While residing in Kingston, he was a district commissioner for the Rip Van Winkle Council of Boy Scouts.

Myers, his wife, Mary Ann, and their children, Annette, Stephen, David and Mark, reside at 217 Glenbrook Drive in Endicott.

expenses and fixed expenses. In the former the costs are determined in the latter they are considered period expenses and are to be charged to expense as incurred.

Veterans Pension Claims Rejected Will Be Reviewed

More than 280,000 veterans whose claims for compensation or pension had previously been denied by the Veterans Administration will now have their claim reviewed, according to F. William Sheehan, officer in charge of the five-county Veterans Administration Office, Main Post Office, Kingston.

These veterans are those whose claims were disallowed by VA after World War II and prior to 1955 for the reason that their claimed disabilities were not shown at the time of their last examination.

Pilot Study
Consequently, a pilot study was ordered in March 1958, by Sumner G. Whittier, Administrator of Veterans Affairs to determine whether a broadened review of disallowed claims was in order. The pilot study was carried on in seven regional offices in widely-separated sections of the nation.

By far the largest source of the comparatively few errors discovered was the category "disability not shown at time of last examination." A full review is being ordered of the more than 280,000 disallowed claims in this category.

Review In Order
Whittier, in a recent statement said that the pilot study indicated that the overwhelming majority of cases had been properly adjudicated, but felt that a broadened review is in order as a matter of equity and complete fairness to the veterans involved.

Projecting the findings of the pilot study to the disallowed claims involved in the broadened review indicates as many as 2,000 veteran-claimants might be found eligible for monetary awards.

The new review, Mr. Whittier said, will soon be underway in several VA regional offices on a "time available" basis, and will be extended to all 67 regional offices as soon as the current workload permits.

Passing View
GEARY, Okla. (AP)—For 42 years students have entered the Geary High School building through the rear door. The front faces vacant lots and a railroad track. Old timers said the school was built facing the tracks so passengers on passing trains would have a pleasant view.

GOP, Dems Make Inroads During Village Voting

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—It was a toss-up today between Republicans and Democrats for party honors in the state-wide village elections.

Unofficial, incomplete returns showed both parties made inroads Tuesday into areas traditionally occupied by the opposing camp.

Ardley Goes GOP
Many village officers were elected under local party banners. In predominantly Republican Westchester County, Democrats took control of Irvington, Tarrytown, Elmsford and Hastings-on-Hudson but surrendered Ardley in majority elections.

Upstate, Democrats gained control of the western New York village of Arcade for the first time in 40 years and at Tupper Lake, a former GOP stronghold, the Democrats won all offices.

Democrat Richard Maroney defeated GOP Mayor Fred W. Hettler in Attica, and at Danville, Robert C. Cain, a Democrat, defeated Republican Edgar W. Allen. Both sought a post held by a retiring Republican.

Meanwhile, Republicans Edgar Dillie in Bolivar and Fred L. Roberts in Angelica ousted Democratic mayors.

At Fort Plain, Republican Monroe Wanner unseated Democrat James Kelly. Republican Harry Weart defeated Democratic Mayor Maynard W. Brown in Seneca Falls and Myron Miller, also a Republican, upset Mayor Charles Reed, a Democrat, in Montour Falls.

Two End in Ties
At least two mayoralty contests ended in ties. Kenneth Stowell, Republican, and Robert Murtha, Democrat, each polled 256 votes for mayor in Pulaski.

At New Berlin, Mayor Lewis Spurr, an Independent, battled to a 261-261 tie with former Mayor Sophie Karalunas, a caucus candidate.

At Saranac Lake, control of the village board was undecided. Voters cast 1,026 votes each for John Campion, Democrat, and John Morgan, Republican, who sought one of four trustee posts. The GOP now controls the board 3-2.

At LeRoy, the Democrats gained 3-2 control of the village board for the first time in many years. And in traditionally Republican Clifton Springs, control of the village board went to the Democrats, leaving one GOP member.

Rhinebeck Man Named to IBM Engineer Post

JAY OGG

The Military Products Division of International Business Machines Corporation today announced the appointment of Jay Ogg, of Rhinebeck, as development engineer in solid-state computer inputs at the division's plant, Kingston.

Ogg joined IBM in 1947 as a customer engineer in Green Bay, Wis. He joined early SAGE computer development in May, 1955, as a technical engineer. In September, 1955, he joined the subcontract engineering inputs department. He advanced through several increasingly responsible positions. In September, 1958, he was appointed a project engineer in solid-state computer inputs, a position he held until his present appointment.

Ogg studied at North Carolina State College and at Michigan College of Mining and Technology. He is a veteran of three years service with the U. S. Army.

Ogg, his wife, Dorothy, and children, Laurel, 3, and Thomas, 5, reside at 34 Birchwood Drive, Forest Park, Rhinebeck.

Fringe Benefits Increase Payroll Costs: Stillman

Fringe benefits for employees of public transportation agencies equal a high percentage of direct payroll costs, according to John S. Stillman, chairman of the New York State Bridge Authority.

In a workshop conference of the American Bridge, Tunnel and Turnpike Association (ABTTA) held in New York City Monday afternoon, Stillman reported that fringe benefits in a typical large public transportation agency are equal to 24 per cent of all direct payroll costs.

This is especially true, Stillman stated, in areas of the United States where salaries and living costs are relatively high. In New York State, for example, fringe benefits are significant expense items for agencies such as the Thruway Authority, the Port Authority, and the Bridge Authority.

These findings were contained in an analysis of fringe benefits of bridge and tunnel toll collection personnel made by a five-man ABTTA administration subcommittee, headed by Stillman. The data was gathered from 79 transportation agencies.

A breakdown of fringe benefits in percentages of direct payroll costs of the agency referred to shows that Social Security accounts for 2 1/2 per cent, employee retirement, 8 1/2 per cent, health insurance, 1 1/2 per cent, vacations and holidays, 6 1/2 per cent, and sick leave, 5 1/2 per cent.

In the same agency, average vacations and holidays for toll collectors range from 14 1/2 to 17 vacation days a year, and average sick leave authorized an employee amounts to about 30 days, or 12 per cent of a normal work year.

Mangas Colorado, noted Apache warrior and chief, terror of New Mexico in the 19th century, was six feet seven inches tall.

Valentis' Jailed Since August Brothers Now Anxious To Talk on Apalachin

NEW YORK (AP)—Two brothers have sent word through their lawyer that they want to talk their way out of jail by testifying before the State Investigation Commission about the Apalachin gang-land convention.

The sudden switch was announced by the lawyer for Frank Valentis, 36, and Costenze Valentis, 32, both of Rochester.

Clammed Up Before
The Valentis brothers and five other men have been in jail here since last August for clamping up when called as witnesses before the commission.

All seven bulky witnesses are listed by authorities among the 60-add underworld figures and associates who attended the meeting Nov. 14, 1957.

The seven were given indefinite jail terms for contempt. The plan has been to keep them in jail until they answer questions.

The Valentis brothers' lawyer, Gilbert S. Rosenthal, announced Tuesday that they were ready to testify. "They are extremely anxious to obtain their release as soon as possible so that they may rejoin their families in Rochester," the lawyer said.

May Testify Within Week
The brothers are expected to get an opportunity to testify within a week.

Jacob Grumet, chairman of the investigation commission, said of their change of heart:

"We have been waiting for months for these men to come forward and tell the truth. But we must be satisfied that they are telling the truth and not giving us fairy tales...."

Immunity Not Enough
The seven bulky witnesses were sent to jail on State Supreme Court orders obtained by the commission.

The commission offered them immunity from prosecution on the basis of anything they might tell the commission. But the witnesses contended the immunity was not broad enough.

The commission started the jail treatment for clamping witnesses as it pressed for a first behind-the-scenes account of what went on when the underworld big shots pow-wowed at Apalachin.

Parley Varies
Several agencies investigating the conclave have heard various versions of its purpose. One idea is that it was a top strategy conference of the Mafia, the international crime and terror band.

Other speculations are that the meeting was called to redistribute the rackets of Albert Anastasia, who had been murdered in New York City, or that the gangsters met to cut shares of the Cuban gambling business, which was then booming.

The lawyer for the Valentis brothers asked State Supreme Court Tuesday for a writ of habeas corpus to bring his clients into court so they could purge themselves of contempt and be released.

No immediate ruling on the application was made.

In announcing the brothers' willingness to testify, Rosenthal said they reached the decision last Friday. Earlier on that day, the Court of Appeals, New York's highest tribunal, upheld their indefinite jail sentences.

Three From Here To Attend State Heart Assembly

Representatives of the Heart Chapter of Ulster County will attend sessions of the annual conference of the New York Heart Assembly, to be held in Rochester, Thursday and Friday.

Dr. Frederic W. Holcomb Sr., chairman of the Ulster County Heart Chapter's Medical Advisory Board said today Dr. Alfred M. Feldshuh of Kerhonkson will attend the scientific sessions for physicians. Dr. Feldshuh is a member of one of the New York Heart Assembly's sub-committee on "Guidance of Children with Cardiac Limitations" and is active in the chapter's community service programs.

Mrs. Vincent G. Connolly, Heart Chapter chairman, and a member of the New York State Assembly's Executive Board, will attend the business meeting and sessions for the lay leaders.

The Executive Director, Miss Hazel M. Steed will also attend the sessions.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock prices advanced today but profit taking whittled some early sharp gains. Trading tapered off early in the afternoon.

The glamor space age issues pushed higher along with most motors, airlines and rails. Steels, metals and chemicals were mixed.

North American Aviation picked up more than 2. Zenith and Martin more than 1 point. Raytheon and Sperry Rand moved ahead fractionally. Radio Corp. sagged nearly a point.

Chrysler jumped 2 and Ford more than 1. General Motors and American Motors were unchanged.

Bell & Howell moved up more than 4. Philadelphia & Reading leaped about 5 and Polaroid around 2.

Anacoda sank nearly a point but Kennecott added a small fraction.

Standard Oil (New Jersey) and Royal Dutch dipped a shade.

Baltimore & Ohio and Chesapeake & Ohio added almost a point. Goodyear and Goodrich were strong.

American Telephone surged ahead a point.

U.S. government bonds were firm.

Trooper's Story
Mrs. Geiselman was issued a summons by Trooper George Gaines who reported that she was proceeding south behind an unidentified car and the school bus. When the bus stopped, the car ahead of her also stopped. She reportedly pulled around the stopped car and started to pass the bus when the mishap occurred.

Ex-Hardenbergh
the grand jury voted to grant immunity to Shaver and he was so notified. He still declined to answer questions and as a result the grand jury voted to cite Shaver for contempt pursuant to law and the show cause order was sought. Shaver was directed by the foreman of the grand jury to appear Thursday 10:30 a. m. pursuant to his subpoena.

Prosperity, Stock Boom, Fashions Spur Easter Trade

NEW YORK (AP)—Rising prosperity, a booming stock market and a return to fashions that flatter the female form are putting new life into the nation's Easter retail trade.

So say many of the merchants, bankers and Chamber of Commerce officials interviewed by The Associated Press in a coast-to-coast survey.

"Business is shaping up beautifully," says an executive of a big department store on Chicago's busy State Street. "Easter sales are far ahead of last year."

People are spending with more confidence, said Richard H. Rich, president of Rich's in Atlanta.

"Consumers are more confident and seem to be spending more," observes Joseph Lieberman, senior vice president of L. Bamberger & Co., Newark, N.J. "The stock market is healthy and that always seems to be a good indicator."

Laurence Mallinckrodt, president of the Scruggs, Vandervoort, Barney in St. Louis said: "Sales are very good compared to last year and we still have a few selling days to go."

While optimism is the keynote, you'll find dissenters here and there. A New York department store executive complains that women don't get excited about fashions when there's a half inch of snow on the ground.

Wide areas of the Northeast and upper Midwest were blanketed by a heavy snowfall late last week, and store sales took a nosedive.

Other localized deterrents to an unbounded shopping spree include: persistent pockets of unemployment in some industrial centers, scattered state and local tax increases, a printers' strike that closed daily newspapers in Columbus, Ohio, for two weeks and—in cities where winter has lingered on—the earlier Easter date.

Not all merchants regard the earlier Easter as a handicap. In some Southern and Western cities where the weather has been mild, it is considered an asset. That's the sentiment of merchants in Los Angeles where the mercury climbed into the high 80s while snow fell in New York. It's echoed by store officials in Miami, San Francisco, Dallas, Denver and Kansas City.

Rosendale Elects

the village. It is the first time in many years that a man has held the office for three successive terms.

A total of 1,382 votes were cast in the election, comparatively light for a mayoralty race. Last year in an "off year" election a total of 1,632 votes were cast.

Greco received 695 votes and Eckert 694. Their opponents, Joseph Polansky (D) and Raymond Getman (R), received 672 and 636 votes respectively.

To Select Manager
The new village board, which will remain Republican by a margin of three to two, will select a village manager after April 1.

Greco is a correctional officer at the Eastern Correctional Institution, Nanuet, Getman an instructor in industrial arts in Ellenville Central School.

Mayor George P. Holmes of Saugerties was reelected, polling 297 votes. Sheldon Longendyke (291), Elton Johnson (294) and Frank Short (296) were elected trustees without opposition. All ran on the Independent ticket.

The People's Party headed by Mayor Henry J. DuBois, running unopposed at the New Paltz elections, polled some 60 odd votes as follows:

DuBois, 63 (one void); William R. Jansen, incumbent, two year term, 61 votes (three blank); Marinus Petersen, incumbent, two year term, 61 votes (three blank); S. Parks (two blank), and Richard Klux, one year term, incumbent, 62 votes (two blank).

Streifer Says

order, returnable at Albany on April 26, requiring Kingston Cablevision to show cause why the firm should not be enjoined from proceeding with the installation of the system pending trial of the action by Harper.

Streifer said the "so-called taxpayers' suit" apparently serves the Reade's Theatre interests to delay the day of good TV reception in Kingston.

Streifer's statement today said: "The courts are open to them for that purpose. In all decency, however, they should try their suit in court—not in the newspapers. Even more, in all decency, they should refrain from casting unfounded slurs and insinuations against the members of the Common Council."

Sat on Franchise, He Says
"It was the unanimous vote of the Council, Republican and Democrat alike, to permit Kingston Cablevision to offer community TV antenna service after Reade's Kingston Video Antenna Corporation had sat on its franchise for a year without giving any indication of action or progress thereunder."

"Kingston Cablevision, Inc. is determined to try its case in court, not in the press. Certain statements in the press released by Reade's attorney must, however, be refuted."

No Secrecy
"1. There was no secrecy in any of the proceedings. The oral presentation on behalf of Kingston Cablevision was made at an open meeting of the Common Council in the presence of all its members, the press, radio and public. It was reported in The Freeman on the following day."

"2. The written proposal of Kingston Cablevision, dated Dec. 1957, was presented to the Common Council and mailed to the city clerk. It was read at an open meeting of the Council."

"3. The matter was heard and considered by the Laws and Rules Committee of the Common Council, which had jurisdiction of the matter, at several meetings attended by the members thereof representing both parties."

Unanimously Adopted
"4. The ordinance was unanimously adopted. All of the aldermen, Republican and Democrat alike, voted in favor."

"5. No exclusive privilege was requested by Kingston Cablevision, Inc., nor was it granted. Kingston Cablevision was merely permitted to compete with Reade's Kingston Video Antenna Corporation. We are informed that a third application for similar rights is presently pending. Such competition can only benefit the public."

"The press release in Tuesday Freeman seeks to convince the public that Reade is motivated by a desire to benefit the city and the public."

Will Continue Work
"In all candor, he should disclose that on Feb. 3 in New York City, Walter Reade demanded that he be made a stockholder and director of Kingston Cablevision, Inc. and threatened a lawsuit if this was not done. When Kingston Cablevision refused to submit to such threat, Reade sent a telegram as follows:

"Assume from information in newspapers and from private sources you do not intend to cooperate along the lines of our conference at the Astor Hotel, Feb. 3, 1959. I am proceeding immediately with the necessary action to protect our interest in this matter."

"Kingston Cablevision is determined to proceed as quickly as possible to make excellent TV available to Kingston. The Reade lawsuit will delay things but work will proceed as fast as permitted by his injunctions."

Defense Chiefs

Willard C. Drumm (R-Columbia County) the measure would provide for injunctions against picketing to organize non-union businesses.

Employees, however, must first have petitioned the National Labor Relations Board for an employee election. This is designed to meet objection that the bill is aimed at union activity.

The Assembly also endorsed, 128-8, a bill that would bar from criminal trials any evidence gained through illegal eavesdropping. Such evidence cannot be admitted in civil cases now.

The bill would bar such evidence except when it was gathered by police "in hot pursuit" of criminals. Former Gov. Harriman vetoed a similar measure last year because law enforcement officers protested it would hamper them.

The Assembly also gave final approval to a bill authorizing charitable groups qualified to run bingo games to do so at county fairs. Sen. Gilbert Seelye (R-Saratoga County) introduced it.

Hopes for Future

Mrs. Arthur Freeman, Ulster County director of the field volunteers.

Other Speakers
Also speaking will be George Swirsky, chairman of the Ulster county unit and Kenneth R. Miller, assistant to the director, American Cancer Society, New York State Division.

Welcome will be brought by Dr. William S. Bush, president of the Ulster county unit. Invocation will be by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Connolly, pastor of St. Philomena's RC Church, and benediction by the Rev. Ralph E. Hughes, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church.

Leaders for Campaign
Members of the Ulster County committee for the campaign: George Swirsky, chairman; Dr. Stephen McGrath, co-chairman; publicity: Edward G. DeTemple, industrial chairman; Joseph D. Saccoman, special gifts; Mrs. John Schuster, city chairman; Howard S. Pangburn, township chairman, and James J. Rua, treasurer.

Registered Nurse Shows
Common Sense for Which Her Profession Is Noted

Q. "I am a registered nurse and am able to invest only small amounts at a time. I own Westinghouse Electric, Merck, City Products, Mass. Investors Fund, Canadian Javelin and Standard Oil of New Jersey. I have $4500 in Government bonds, $1000 in a savings account and $1000 in paid up life insurance. Are my savings enough to risk investing further amounts?"

A. You have done extremely well in your savings program and have shown good common sense in your investments. Westinghouse Electric, Merck, Mass. Investors and Jersey Standard are all tops in their class. City Products is not quite in the same category but is a pretty good stock and yields well. About one-third of City Products' business is in the distribution of ice, which has limited growth prospects. If you don't require income at present, I would switch City Products into Corn Products, which has a greater chance for appreciation. Corn Products is the second largest producer of packaged foods, and I believe there is considerable growth ahead for this stock.

SMALL SPECULATION
JUSTIFIED
Canadian Javelin is an outright price speculation at its current level well above $10. The company has considerable iron ore reserves and can make a lot of money if it is able to bring these reserves into production. This is a very big undeveloped situation and very hard to analyze and follow. Since your commitment is not large, I would favor holding your Canadian Javelin as a long-term speculation. This is one of those deals that could pay off handsomely if things work out well. The company has applied for listing on the American Stock Exchange.

Your present holdings are pretty well diversified. You have no public utilities, and I think you should be represented in this field. For funds you have now to invest, I am going to suggest that you buy 10 shares of American Electric Power, selling on the Big Board at around 50. This is a fast growth electric utility and should be a very rewarding holding over the years ahead. I think your savings backlog is adequate for any normal contingency. This is particularly true because your choice of stocks has been mainly sound and conservative. You are, in my opinion, fully justified in buying additional amounts of stock out of future earnings. Continue to use your good common sense and stick to the better quality issues.

Reader Asks About A & P
Q. W. F. writes, "Would you advise a small investor to buy Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. stock? What dividend will be paid?"

A. Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea is a good stock, no question about it. The company so far dominates its field that it does about twice the business of its nearest competitor. The shares are not cheap, however. They are priced pretty high in relation to earnings. Last year the stock paid 80 cents a share in dividends. I think it may pay a little more in 1959. Figured on 80 cents annually, the yield is 1.7 per cent. If you can afford a very low return, I would buy A & P.

and sit with it patiently. Otherwise, I suggest you buy the number 2 chain, Safeway Stores, which is also a fine stock and yields 3.1 per cent.

The Low-Down on Sonotone
Q. From New York City comes this question. "What is the low-down on Sonotone? I own a little of the stock and have seen it move up sharply on the American Exchange. Is anything going on there?"

A. The low-down on Sonotone is that two large investment services recommended the stock to their clients simultaneously. Both services, working independently, reached the same conclusion. Sonotone is a very good little stock, low-priced and working gradually into the general field of electronics. Most people think of Sonotone solely as a firm that makes hearing aids. Well, they do all right in this field, but far pastures sometimes look greener. Spreading out into electronics for defense could give the stock a lot more glamour than it has had. I like Sonotone very much, but would let it settle down a little before buying on top of a big rise.

(Send your investment questions to Mr. Roger E. Spear, c/o this paper.)

Clintondale

CLINTONDALE — Navy Ensign Henry P. Semmelhack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Semmelhack of Crescent Avenue has been sent to the United States Marine base at Camp Lejeune, N. C. where he will take a six-weeks training course with a Mobile Construction Battalion. This is the first Seabee Battalion to be sent to the Marine base for such training. Ensign Semmelhack attended Clintondale and was graduated from Highland High School.

Young people of the Clintondale Sunday school gave a religious puppet show at the Highland Presbyterian Church Sunday morning.

The Rev. George Johnson, pastor of the Clintondale and Modena Methodist Churches will hold a service in the local church at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning. Sunday school classes will start at 11 o'clock under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Roosa.

Highland Grange held a successful card party at the Grange Hall Saturday night. Donald Smith, Master of the local Grange was general chairman. A committee served refreshments during the evening.

The annual 4-H minstrel show will be presented in the Grange Hall Friday, April 3, 8 p. m. The cast, all members of the local 4-H club is being coached by George Ronk, leader. Refreshments will be on sale during the intermission and after the show.

Mrs. Louise Harries of New York City spent the weekend here at her home.

Harry Hornbeck, a native of this place died Thursday at his home in Ohioville while he was clearing snow. His parents were the late Richard and Arline Halstead Hornbeck.

Members of the fire police squad of Allied Communities Fire Company attended the second fire police school held at Milton Monday night. Clintondale, Highland, Esopus, Milton and Marlboro departments are cooperating in conducting the school.

The Plattkill Lions Club will hold a ladies night meeting 8:30 p. m. at Hasbrouck Memorial Hall in Modena. Donald McNicholas, is chairman of a dinner to be held at the Ireland Corners Hotel on Saturday, April 18th. There will be a regular meeting at the Oddo House on Wednesday night.

The Triboro 4H Club observed National 4H Week by having an exhibit at the Clintondale Market. Members showed project work including, sewing boxes, aprons, skirts, beanies, milk filter dolls, a yard octopus, reed baskets and baskets made from popsicle sticks. Members who demonstrated at County Demonstration Day in Kingston included Carol Reasmuto, Ruth Rhodes, Susan Gaffney, Bernette Brenner, Mary Jane Cappozzi, Stephanie Oddo, Mary Gaffney and Donna Rhodes.

A number from here attended the physical education demonstration held by the Future Farmers of America at the Highland High School gymnasium Friday night.

At the Clintondale Friends Meeting House 11 o'clock Sunday morning the Rev. Jesse Stanfield will conduct a worship service. Howard Setterlund, the Sunday school superintendent will hold classes at 9:45 o'clock. Tuesday night the ladies of the church held a family supper in the dining room.

Madeline Ronk, Rebekah district deputy president, was present at a meeting in Highland when the Rebekah degree was conferred on Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wager and Mrs. Jean Minard.

There was no school in the Clintondale school last Thursday due to the heavy snow fall. John Minard presided for the meeting of Allied Communities Fire Company held at the firehouse on Monday night.

The official board of the Methodist church will meet Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Coy.

Magazines Purchased

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — The University of Wisconsin has purchased the Sukov collection of 10,617 "little magazines." Recently the collector, Dr. Martin Sukov of Minneapolis, donated a one-half interest in the collection to the university and the school agreed to buy the remaining half for $30,000. "Little magazines" are periodicals possessing a small number of subscribers and usually few advertisers but containing a high grade of intellectual content.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — March is writing the last of the recession off many official statistics — such as industrial output—and pointing toward new records.

It undoubtedly is setting new highs in others such as personal income totals.

Outdoor Jobs to Help

With each day comes more hope that soon there will be easing in the total of the jobless. Outdoor jobs will be opening up.

That March is wiping out the recession's last mark in total industrial output can be assumed from these things:

1. In February the Federal Reserve Board's index was up to 141 per cent of the 1947-49 average, only one point under the pre-recession figure of August, 1957, and two points below the record high set just two years before.

2. This month increased activity along many lines all but assures a further advance. Steel mills are setting new tonnage records week by week. Demand for copper exceeds the supply. Aluminum companies report an encouraging jump in demand in recent weeks. Rubber consumption by factories is in a sharp rise. Some railroads are reporting increased freight traffic.

Income Nears Record

3. Spurred by fears of summer strikes, company after company is laying in inventories. The only way the Federal Reserve industrial output index can go in March is up.

That the total of personal income will set a new record this month seems just as sure. The Commerce Department reports that in February the annual rate hit a peak of 36 1/2 billion dollars. This topped the year ago figure by 17 billion dollars. At that time it was the low for the recession.

Part of the rise in incomes will be siphoned away by rising taxes at many local and state levels.

Strike Fear Apparent

While it is hoped that retail prices will stay fairly steady, the slow but sure rise in the cost of services is set to continue. That will whittle away some more of the income gain.

Also it can't be ignored that much of the industrial activity is more in fear than in hope. Major strikes could bring on shortages and later on higher material costs. That's why businessmen are building up stocks. When they're built high enough, orders may dwindle.

"Yes, but my car will save us as much as $1.00 on every tankful of gas because it uses regular. How about that?"

"Well, that's nice, but what about my frilly hats? We'll have hat room not just head room in my car. And you're no shorty, either ... you'd bump your head in a lot of those new cars."

"Not in this one. Besides, it only needs oil changes each 4000 miles."

Gone Since July 14 Reunion Is Near For Boy, Parents

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Peter Walker is scheduled to head homeward today for a reunion with his parents and his triplet brother and sister. Peter hasn't seen them since he ran away from his home in Syracuse, N. Y., last July.

Authorities at the juvenile shelter in Jacksonville planned to put Walker aboard a plane today for Washington, D. C., where his parents were on hand to meet him.

Two Sets of Triplets

The Walkers also have another set of triplets—Mary, Martin and Margaret, 11—plus four other children. The odds against two sets of triplets in a family have been computed at 78,770,976 to 1.

Peter said he ran away because his grades weren't as good as those of his triplet brother Paul and sister Pat.

"I had skipped school during the regular school year and had to go to summer school," he said. "I kept on skipping and my mother got on me about it. I know I did wrong, but I decided to strike out on my own."

He spent most of the time since then in New York City, working as a redcap in a bus station and dishwasher in restaurants. He lived in hotels.

Homesick at Holiday

"I was especially homesick during Thanksgiving and Christmas because those are the times when our family is closest," he said.

But he figured he was in too deep to go back.

Cold weather in New York decided him to head south last week. He was in Jacksonville only an hour when Patrolman D. A. Slay approached him on a street Sunday and talked to him.

Walker revealed his identity and he was taken to the juvenile shelter as a runaway.

Miss Ann Davis, a social worker, said the youth seemed happy now that he could go back home.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Received an interesting letter from Oliver J. Tillson II, from Mount Dora, Fla., the day of snow-storm March 12. Previously I had written him to send us some warm breezes. He writes in part about that, "We could send you some warm breezes, which you request, were it possible to mail the same."

It has been very lovely here all winter, except for two short cold snaps. Our fuel bill has been one-third of the number of gallons and dollars for this season compared with last. Today is partly cloudy, but the temperature is at 76 as I write at noon. Azaleas are in full and glorious bloom; the orange trees are loaded with blossoms and fill the air for miles with their fragrance. It looks as if we would have another good season for the citrus growers, and that means good business for all, as the economy of Florida is based on this fruit business, along with tourism. He enclosed a blossom from the orange tree. It has an aroma like our honey-suckle.

There was an error in a column in which I covered his past letter. His family had contributed a grandfather's clock and not club to the Senate House. This clock, he had written, stands in the hall. On my next visit will look for it. This time he writes "I forgot to mention that the estate of Laura Tillson Vail (that's his family) put a Dutch Kaas in the Senate House, also. It belonged to my great-grandmother, Esther Freer, wife of Job Tillson of Rosendale. She was the daughter of Thomas Freer.

When I last saw it, it was up on the second floor, in one of the semi-finished rooms."

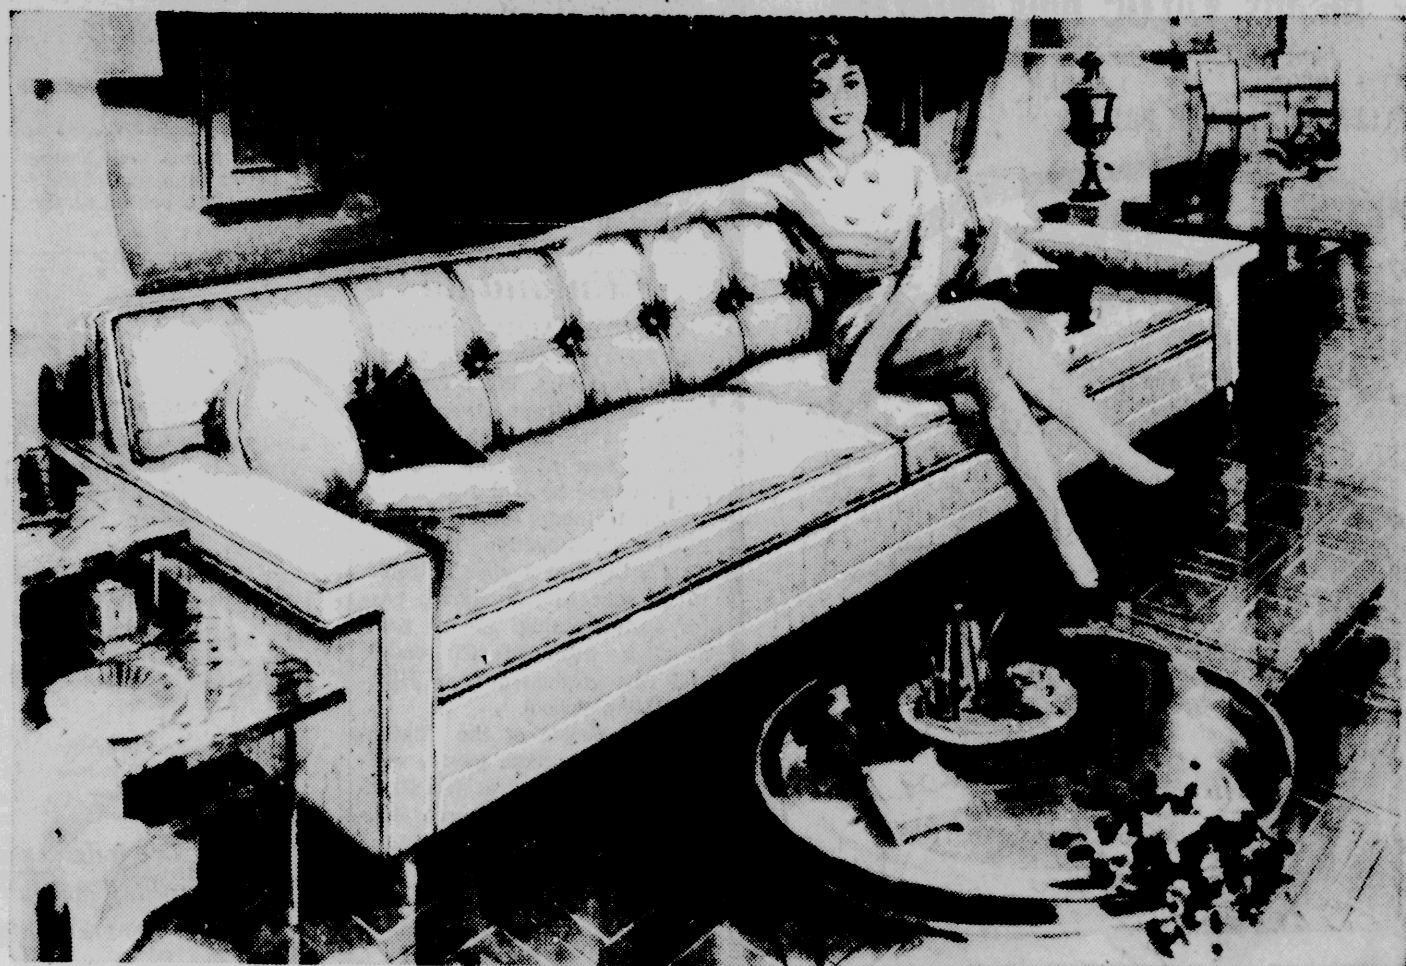

Many students are asking about the article they want to write for the coming celebration contest. Off hand I cannot give them any ideas or advice except that their local libraries no doubt have endless material for such an article to give them inspiration.

Kingston goes back some 300 years. You can start with the Indians, with corn planting, agriculture, transportation, sailing and the coming of steam. It all happened around here as it did in many other places. There are many buildings several hundred years old, so construction can be covered over that period. There certainly is a big difference between the sturdy little stone houses of Stone Ridge and the new gas stations. That should give some boys ideas on articles. Ideas are all around us, look what happened to the school system. I have not seen the requirements for this contest, nor will I be any part of it from start to finish. I haven't the slightest idea as to what is wanted.

One thing I can say, the contest has stirred up the students, young and old, and perhaps they will come out with some novel ideas. I do hope we have local winners. There is an interesting booklet out, called "Historic Sites of New York State." It includes our Senate House in Kingston, has picture and write up. There is a good photo of the handsome Alexander Hamilton and one of General Philip Schuyler (1733-1804) Hamilton's father-in-law.

BIG DIFFERENCE

SO MUCH THE SAME IN PRICE... SO DIFFERENT ON THE ROAD

BIG DIFFERENCE IN STYLE

Plymouth's clean, progressive styling spells glamour and "go" without showiness. From the massive new grille to the optional rear Sport Deck, the 1959 Plymouth is tastefully designed with a modern, luxury look. You just won't find such elegance anywhere else in the low-price field this year.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN RIDE AND PERFORMANCE

No other low-price car can match Plymouth's Torsion-Aire Ride... yours at no extra cost. You enjoy superb handling ease with no roll or sway on turns, no front-end dive on stops. And you thrill to V-3 power, including optional New Golden Commando 395... largest engine in Plymouth's field.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN ECONOMY

Plymouth won the Mobilgas Economy Run in the low-price class two years in a row. And only the 1959 Plymouth offers a Fuel-Saver Choke and new 3-stage carburetor for maximum gas economy. What's more, all standard Plymouth V-3 and 6 engines perform at peak efficiency on regular grade gasoline.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN FEATURES

	PLYMOUTH	CAR "C"	CAR "F"		PLYMOUTH	CAR "C"	CAR "F"
Total-Contact Brakes	✓			Long-life baked enamel	✓		✓

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME (Registered U. S. Patent Office)

By JIMMY HATLO

Worthless Find

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Two plumbers thought they had made a lucky discovery when they uncovered a rusty tin box containing about $4,000 in 1864 Confederate money. But 14-year-old Peck Jackson burst the bubble when he told them he put the bills in a fishing tackle box and buried it in 1953. "I just buried it to be burying something," said Peck. The money was worthless.

Plattekill

PLATTEKILL—A meeting of the Plattekill Grangers Saturday evening included an agricultural program. Guest speaker was Robert G. Peterson, instructor in Vocational Agriculture at the Wallkill Central School.

A group of boys representing the Future Farmers of America, Wallkill Central School Chapter, also took part in the program. Charles Van Duser demonstrated a new method of packing apples, and James Wilkin introduced a new creamed honey product. Rodney Gregg, who was awarded a National Degree of American Farmer at Kansas City, Mo., in 1957, was also present.

The refreshment committee included Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Dawes, Elizabeth and Susie Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruggiero, Nancy Centonze, Angelo Ruggiero, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Giffelman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilson, Kenneth Birdsall.

Plans were announced for a fish in chips supper to be served Saturday evening, April 25, at the Grange Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Edmunds and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Grismer in charge of general arrangements.

The Plattekill Lions Club planned a number of projects at the recent meeting held at the Oddo House, near Clintondale. They will cooperate with the Wallkill Lions Club on purchasing additional vision testing equipment for the Wallkill Central School system. They will present a troop flag to the newly organized Plattekill Cub pack. Russell Croce to attend when the presentation is made.

Ladies Night will be held Saturday evening, April 4, at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall. Supper will be served by the hall committee.

A Smorgasbord will be served Saturday evening, April 18 at the Ireland Corners Hotel, Donald McNicholas is chairman.

The fourth in a series of sermons by the Rev. George Furnival, pastor of the Plattekill-Rossville Methodist Churches, was delivered Sunday, at regular worship services entitled, "Jesus Came Preaching."

Choirs will rehearse for the Easter selections Wednesday 7:30 p. m. at the church.

The annual election of officers for the ensuing year, will be held at a meeting of the Plattekill Fire Department Thursday evening, March 26.

Present officers are Chief engineer, Lester Upright; first assistant, Kenneth Birdsall; second assistant, John Edler; president, Martin Feldt; vice president, George Sisti Jr.; secretary, Fred Campbell; treasurer, Vernard B. Wager; sergeant-at-arms, Michael Poeschl; trustee for five years, Myron E. Foster. William Dunn joined the department at a recent meeting. A committee was appointed to make a survey for construction of an addition to the firehouse. They are Ray Garcia, Myron Foster, William McAfee, William and Herman Feldt.

Local members of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association were hosts with the Gardiner and Modena Firemen, to a meeting of the Association held Tuesday evening at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall in Modena. Plans were discussed for the supper to be served July 23 in three churches in the Rosendale area, in connection with the annual county convention and parade.

Gene Bilbao, recently named to the Ulster County Athletic Association All-Star team, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Delphin Bilbao of this community. Bilbao scored a total of 65 points in a possible 90, placing him fourth in the first team. His brother, Ralph, placed first in the third team. Both boys are students at the Wallkill Central School.

Elbridge Gerow is one of three assessors of the Town of Plattekill, authorized to attend an assessors meeting at Rochester, N. Y., Thursday, March 19 to 22.

Common Logic

BALTIMORE (AP)—A woman selling reference books for children was demonstrating how her product makes a boy think for himself. She showed 4-year-old Frederick Spinning a picture of three small birds, one with an open beak, and one larger bird. "Which bird gets the worm, Freddie?" she asked. "The bird on the end of the row," Freddie replied. "He's the biggest." She made a sale.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—People tell Nan Martin, hailed by some as Broadway's actress of the year, she's lucky.

In reply Nan likes to quote a line from the play she currently is starring in: "It isn't luck when God is good to you."

Long, Hard Work

Nan Martin, a vibrantly slender woman with blue-hazel eyes and hair the color of time-mellowed ivory, is no sudden Cinderella.

Nothing wonderful ever happens to you overnight," she said soberly. "There is a long process of hard work before you take the long stride, the big step.

"I've always wondered what makes people stay in the theater. It's a cruel business. It's a brutal business. You have to work very hard to get by in it, and you have to love it very much to stay in it."

After getting off to a good start, Nan did give up the theater for a while—but now she feels she's back to stay.

Nan first tried for a footlight career here at the age of 17, shortly after graduating from a Santa Monica, Calif., high school, where she was the only girl student president in the school's history.

Although she earlier had started studying drama with Max Reinhardt at 12, she first won attention here as a fashion model, and was featured on half a dozen magazine covers.

Cornell Show Helped

A role in "The Constant Wife" with Katharine Cornell launched her on her way, but then she married Robert Emmett Dolan, a young producer, and she quit to become "a full-time wife." They moved to the West Coast.

"It was a wonderful life," she said. "We had a house by the ocean. I painted, and learned to cook, and had a son. I was very domestic. I even made slippers in needlepoint for everyone I loved."

"Then one day I found I had to go back to the theater. It was burning inside me. So back I came."

Starting all over, Nan took any kind of theatrical job she could find. She caught the eye of director Elia Kazan. The phone call from him led her to stardom, as it has many others.

MODENA NEWS

Elsie Coy was hostess to the members of the Modena Unit of the Ulster County Home Extension Service Tuesday night. Mrs. Gertrude Elliott was in charge of the Family Life project, speaking on "Living Together." A social time and serving of refreshments was included in the evening program.

Information on degree work, connected with the conferring of the first and second degrees of initiation of a class of candidates seeking membership in the Plattekill Grange, and scheduled for Saturday evening, March 28, may be obtained by contacting Miss Arlene Bernard of this place, a member of the degree team.

The final sermon during Lent on a series of questions, will be delivered at worship services in the Modena and Clintondale Methodist Churches on Palm Sunday by the Rev. George Johnson, pastor. The title will be "Why Are You Doing This?" A three hour area service has been planned for Good Friday at the Highland Methodist Church, beginning at 12 noon. The service will be based on the seven last words of Jesus from the Cross. Sunrise services will include a communion service Easter Sunday, with breakfast served at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall at the conclusion of the service.

The breakfast will be served by members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, as has been the custom during the past years.

Private funeral services were conducted Friday for Oliver C. DuBois, 96, who died Monday, March 9, at his home, north of Modena, after a long illness.

Mr. DuBois and his son, Richard, have conducted a large fruit farm north of the village for many years. Mr. DuBois supervised the operations until recent years. Mr. DuBois was the oldest resident of this locality, since the death of George Rappelyea, also of Modena, who was 96 years of age when he died in August, 1958.

Willard Mertine of New Paltz and Stone Ridge died Sunday, March 8, at the age of 50 years. As proprietor of the Triangle Lunch Room, New Paltz, he was host through the years to persons throughout this community.

Ralph F. Dewey, 65, who died at his home in Tilton, Wednesday, was well known throughout this area, being former collector for the Prudential Life Insurance Company.

Six of the 12 tree farmer winners in the recent nation-wide 4-H forestry contest were girls.

Nothing Swindles Like Success

BY OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

Nat Lou Green of New Orleans writes: "My partner's two diamond bid was the Jacoby transfer. Naturally enough, he intended to pass when I bid two hearts but I decided to try a psychic two spade bid instead.

"He could not pass this bid so he responded two no-trump whereupon, I went to game.

"West's queen of diamonds was won by East's ace and the suit returned. I ducked and West was in with the eight. The jack of diamonds was allowed to hold also and the last diamond lost to my king.

"East's had to make two discards. A spade discard would have fixed me but my psychic had fooled him and he let two clubs go.

"Now I played ace and one club dropping the king and queen together. The queen of spades was finally led. I took the ace and cashed my last two clubs. As you can see this last club lead squeezed East completely and no matter what he discarded the rest of the tricks were mine.

A lucky hand indeed. I cannot recommend Mr. Green's bidding of the hand but nothing succeeds like success and I congratulate him on putting across a neat swindle.

Scarsdale Man Is First Atomic Boss For Empire State

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A Scarsdale man who has worked with atomic programs since 1951 will serve as the state's first director of atomic development.

Gov. Rockefeller Tuesday appointed Oliver Townsend to head the Office of Atomic Development, a $20,000-a-year post created by the Legislature last week. The appointment is subject to Senate confirmation.

Townsend, 42, was an assistant to the chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, the late Gordon Dean, from 1951 to 1953.

For the last five years he has been secretary and assistant executive manager of the Atomic Industrial Forum Inc. in New York City. The organization fosters industrial developments of atomic energy. It has a membership of 1,700 individuals and 300 corporations, universities, labor organizations and financial and research institutions.

In 1946, Townsend handled the Navy's public information program in Western Europe in connection with the Bikini tests.

His state job will be to advise the governor and the Legislature on developments in the field, draft policies on atomic research and regulation and to stimulate the use of atomic energy.

Lomontville

LOMONTVILLE—The Home Demonstration meeting on sandwich making scheduled for Thursday, March 12, was postponed because of the storm. Meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Matthew Spring Thursday of this week beginning at 10 a. m.

The lesson will be followed by the business session. The lesson on Family Life will be given by Mrs. Oscar Kafka.

Mrs. John H. Macdonald has sold her home here and has left for California. She will make her home with her sons in La Mirada, Calif.

The Brownies from Marbletown School are distributing Girl Scout cookies this week.

Miss Inge Dedy will arrive in New York aboard the liner United States Friday. She will be met by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dedy.

Work on the Cantine bridges has been resumed. The old bridge will be torn down and the new one will be painted.

Former Policeman Adjudged Mentally Ill

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A former rookie policeman who killed a man and a boy in a shooting spree will be committed to a mental institution.

A psychiatrist, Dr. G. W. Shannon of Patton State Hospital, San Bernardino, Calif., testified at a sanity hearing Tuesday that Jerome Kuk, 26, is "psychotic and mentally ill and unable to testify in his own behalf."

Dist. Atty. George Foley said Kuk will be tried on a murder charge if he regains his sanity. Kuk, who formerly lived in Amsterdam, N. Y., killed Steve Bowman, 47, and Jerry Bertelsen, 14, in Boulder City last Oct. 18. Kuk said he had been drinking and thought Bowman was a criminal. There was no explanation of the Bertelsen killing.

Chevy makes one for you...

and you'll want it for all its worth

Fewer and fewer people, we're happy to say, think it's necessary to look over different makes of cars to find the one automobile that offers exactly what they want.

There's really no reason to look further than your Chevrolet dealer's. For the plain fact is that Chevrolet builds so many different kinds of cars there's one to please just about everyone.

Say you want a stylish, spacious car that combines low initial cost with rock-bottom operating expense. You'll find what you want in the Biscayne 2-Door Sedan—one of the lowest priced Chevy models. You can have Chevrolet's new Hi-Thrift 6 under the hood to stretch out the distance between gas stops.

If, on the other hand, you're looking for a car of utmost elegance, there's the Chevrolet Impala 4-Door Sport Sedan. And, to go with it, Chevy's velvety V8 power teamed with triple-turbine Turboglide—one of the finest, smoothest automatic drives offered on any car.

These are just two examples of the dozens of different kinds of Chevrolets you can choose from. One of them may be just what you want. It's almost certain—with models ranging from five beautiful, dutiful station wagons to the unique Corvette—that Chevrolet builds your kind of car. Stop by your dealer's and he'll be happy to help you pick it out.

Optional at extra cost

The smart switch is to the '59 Chevy!

Your Chevrolet choice includes the Corvette, the Impala Sport Coupe, the Nomad Station Wagon, the Bel Air 4-Door Sedan, El Camino, and the Impala Convertible—all shown above.

Named Test Area Manager at IBM

R. J. MEIERS

The Military Products Division of International Business Machines Corporation today announced the appointment of Richard J. Meiers, of Lake Katrine, as project manager of Test Area One and Display Assembly and Test, at the division's plant, Kingston.

Meiers joined IBM in February, 1955, as a system test engineer. He became an associate engineer in October, 1955; a manager in Test Area One in March, 1956; assistant manager of field engineering at Syracuse Air Defense Sector site in May, 1957; and manager of field engineering at Montgomery ADS in February, 1958, a post he held until his present appointment. Meiers is a graduate of Fredonia State Teachers College, Fredonia; with a bachelor of science degree in education. Meiers, his wife, Rosemary, and their children, Jonathan, 9, Christopher, 8, Kathy Lu, 2, and Richard Jr., 1, reside at Shuler's Lane, Lake Katrine.

Hilco Construction School Here Tonight

The second session of Hilco Homes College of Construction Knowledge will be held tonight at 7:30 at the Hilco Home's model on the corner of Wall, Henry, and Fair Street.

Lecturers outstanding in the various fields will speak at each session. This week's speakers will be Charles Abbott of the Abbott Electrical Co. of Saugerties, and John Shults of Canfield Supply will speak on plumbing and heating.

Hilco's College of Construction Knowledge is held as a public service, free of charge and open to anyone interested in construction. The subjects which will be taken up tonight will be plumbing, wiring, tile and bath layout. On March 25, sheetrock, trim, floor laying and interior decor will be discussed. April 1, site planning, financing, and legal aspects will be the topics.

The first session held last week was attended by 29 prospective home owners. The subject of discussion was masonry and framing with Vincent Brancato, the New York and Connecticut regional distributor for Hilco Homes, the guest speaker.

Two Drivers Fined For Passing Lights

Only two drivers paid fines in night court Tuesday and charges against two other persons were withdrawn.

Fined $5 each on charges of passing red traffic light signals were Floyd P. Mower, of 130 Bruyn Avenue, and Charles John Cherney, 35 East Chester Street.

A charge of driving without a license against Meyer Weiner, of 128 O'Neil Street, was withdrawn, as was one of third degree assault against Patrick Joseph Nugent, 77, of 21 Elizabeth Street.

Nugent, who was arrested by Mrs. Rhoda C. Shaw of Shaw's Nursing Home, Elizabeth Street, suffered injuries of the face when he fell as he was about to sit on a chair at police headquarters, and was treated at Kingston Hospital, police said. Information on the arrest said the defendant had grabbed Mrs. Shaw by the wrists.

Two Escape Injury As Plane Crashes

ORISKANY FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—A pilot and his passenger escaped serious injury Tuesday when a light plane crashed during an attempted landing in a farmer's field near here.

Ernest Benishkek, about 25, of (RD) Cazenovia, the pilot, said he was getting ready to land when the plane plunged to the ground. One wing struck a truck parked near the landing strip.

Benishkek and Lyle Kneerskern, about 24, of (407 Main St.) Cazenovia, were taken to Faxon Hospital in Utica.

Benishkek was trying to set down on a farm owned by Fred Oliver, about 3½ miles outside this Oneida County community.

Musical Mailman On Skates Makes Everybody Happy

SIERRA MADRE, Calif. (AP)—A blare of jazz out front, a string of kids behind. And in between, a big friendly grin.

That's the musical mailman rolling down the street—happy-go-lucky Allen Bond.

He is known on his route for his ways with music and children—a sort of Pied Piper on roller skates.

He thinks folks like their letter carrier to be informal—and happy. He's right, too.

See that transistor radio on his belt? Hear it? He bought it with Christmas money the folks on his route gave him. He says people like music.

See how they come out before he gets there? It's the music that draws 'em. And the fact he's so friendly, of course.

The skates? He's been using them since Christmas. He had two deliveries a day then. Christmas rush, you know. Said he wanted to get ahead of the game. That's the way he makes his work seem, too—like a game.

Some days he doesn't skate, and he doesn't walk. On those days he runs. He's peppy, he is. Vitamins are why. That's what he says, anyway.

He needs that umph, even if he is just 30. He has several irons in the fire. Carrying mail all day in Sierra Madre, a community adjacent to Pasadena, is just one of them.

Another one is his duty in the Marine Reserve Fighter Squadron at a naval air station. He was a machine gunner with the Marines in the Korean War.

The main reason he's in a hurry to get his daytime work done, though, is his night job. By night he's a dance band leader. He has his own 12-piece orchestra. He plays bass, saxophone, clarinet and drums. Besides that, he sings.

Bond is uncommon in lots of ways, but there's one way he is just an ordinary, everyday kind of postman—the kind you hear jokes about. On his day off he likes nothing better than a nice, long hike.

"I've gotta keep in trim, man," he says.

$5,000 Monthly

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cecil B. De Mille's 85-year-old widow gets a $5,000 monthly allowance from his estate under a court order issued Tuesday.

RECEIVES AWARD—Certificate of achievement is presented to M/Sgt. Robert Reardon by the commander of the XIII U. S. Army Corps (Reserve), Maj. Gen. Sidney C. Wooten, in a recent ceremony. Award recognized the sergeant's accomplishments as personnel sergeant major at corps headquarters. A veteran of over 17 years service, Sgt. Reardon holds the Purple Heart awarded while serving with the 1st Division in Europe during WWII. He and his wife and 12-year-old son are leaving next week for Ethiopia where he will join the Military Advisory Group. His father, Roger J. Reardon, lives at 58 Broadway.

The award was made on request of Mrs. Constance De Mille, of De Mille's daughter, Mrs. Cecilia De Mille Harper, who recently was named guardian of her last Jan. 21 at age 77.

Old Dutch Plans Tours of Church For 300th Fete

A plan for guided tours of the Old Dutch Church this summer as part of its 300th anniversary celebration has been announced by Stuart Munson, general chairman of the year-long observance.

The tours will be held daily and Sunday beginning about June 1. Guides will be supplied by the Couples Club of the church.

The church is the seventh oldest church organization of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church in America. It was founded in 1659 and there has been continuous worship on practically the same piece of ground since that time.

Among its relics is the famous Washington letter written by Gen. Washington to the ministers, elders and deacons of the church.

Reckless Driving Case to Be Heard

Joseph D. Edwards, 16 Delta Place, Kingston, charged with reckless driving, will face Justice of the Peace John O. Beaver and a jury at 7 p. m. today at the Town of Esopus town hall in Port Ewen. The complainant is Angelina Montella of Ulster Park.

Edwards was arrested by Trooper P. M. Luongo of the Highland station on December 23, 1958, following an accident on Route 9W near Tropical Inn in Port Ewen. The Montella car was badly damaged and Edwards was injured in the mishap. Charles Saccaman will appear for Edwards and the district attorney's office will be represented by Assistant District Attorney James Murray of Ellenville. Edwards has demanded a jury trial.

MRS. RAYMOND SNYDER

Nancy Ann Nyman Weds Raymond Snyder At Baptist Church in Pennsylvania

The marriage of Miss Nancy Ann Nyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac D. Nyman of Douglassville, Pa., to Raymond W. Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Snyder of Kingston, took place at 3 p. m. Saturday, March 14, in the Pughtown Baptist Church with the Rev. Charles Detwiler officiating.

A recital of wedding music was presented by organist, Mrs. Clarence Wynn, and soloist, Mrs. Charles Detwiler. Gladol and snap dragons decorated the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a gown of pure silk peau de soie antique white with velvet roses on the Empire bodice and bell-shaped skirt, pointed sleeves, and chapel sweep train. She wore a fingertip imported illusion veil scalloped with lace motifs, and attached to a pearl cloche. She carried a white Bible with orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Geraldine Marsteller, Athol, Pa., attended as maid of honor. The Misses Mary Lou Snyder, Kingston, sister of the bridegroom, and Terryl Schlegel, Birdsboro, cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaids. Their gowns were embroidered white nylon organza ballerina length dresses over lavender taffeta slips with a contrasting midriff bow extending from the bodice front to the hemline. They wore matching headpieces with tiny circular veils and carried loose colonial bouquets of tea roses and strung hyacinths with ivy.

Lt. Vincent Swager, Rochester, performed the duties of best man. Guests were seated by George Snyder, Denver, Colo., and Paul Snyder, Kingston, brothers of the bridegroom.

The reception was held at Limerick fire hall immediately following the ceremony.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Nyman, wore a light blue silk sheath with rhinestone studded embroidered insets in the skirt and scoop neckline. She wore matching shoes and white accessories. She also wore a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Snyder, the bridegroom's mother, wore a dress of pearl gray lace over pink taffeta. She wore gray shoes, pink and gray accessories, a pink orchid corsage.

For a wedding trip to Bermuda, the bride wore a beige suit with a beaver collar. She wore a pink blouse, a pink flowered hat, alligator accessories, a white orchid corsage.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder plan to reside at 119 Main Street, Westernport, Md.

The bride was graduated from Amity Consolidated High School in 1949; Lankenau Hospital School of Nursing in 1953; University of Pennsylvania in 1955, and will receive a Master's degree from Syracuse University in June, 1959. Her husband was graduated from Kingston High School in 1947; State University College of Forestry, Syracuse, New York in 1952; served four years as a commissioned officer in the United States Navy; attended the State University College of Forestry from 1956 to 1958, and will receive a Master's degree from that school in June, 1959. Mr. Snyder is employed by the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at Luke, Md.

WHO GETS THE AISLE SEAT?

Dear Mrs. Post: Every once in a while I go to the theater with a group of women friends (six to be exact). We play cards together and put aside a certain amount each week for this purpose. There is one woman in the group who always manages to be the first one to the seats and promptly sits herself down on the aisle seat, forcing the others to walk in front of her and take the seats beyond. I think this is not only very bad manners on her part but selfish as well. When I casually mentioned this to her, her reply was "First come, first served." Don't you agree, Mrs. Post, that this is very rude and that the first person should take the farthest seat in and the others follow as they happen to come, the last person seated, taking the aisle seat?

Answer: You are right except in one case, namely, when the first to arrive in a pew for a wedding has the right to the aisle seat.

A Present for One's Hostess

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine tells me that it is not really proper to take or send a present to a hostess after staying with her for a weekend as it implies "payment for hospitality." Will you please tell me if this is true?

Answer: A bread and butter letter is an exaction of etiquette, but the presents we take or send to our hostess depend entirely upon our own feeling. Certainly it is proper to give them but not necessary.

Abbreviating the Name of a State

Dear Mrs. Post: When addressing wedding invitations, may the name of the state be abbreviated (for example, Pa. for Pennsylvania) or must it be written out in full?

Answer: Correctly the name of the state is written in full. Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-29, entitled, "Visiting Cards and When to Leave Them," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The

Anti-Defamation League Plans Panel Discussion for Wednesday, March 25

A distinguished panel of community leaders will discuss combating the forces of prejudice before a joint meeting of Kingston's B'nai B'rith men and women, Wednesday, March 25, at the Jewish Community Center.

The panel members, whose names will be announced shortly, will appear following the showing of "An American Girl," an unusual film spotlighting juvenile delinquency, according to Mrs. Jeremiah Sachs and Mr. Arthur Ewig, co-chairmen for the evening. The joint meeting, an annual event, is held this year under the sponsorship of B'nai B'rith's Anti-Defamation League committee which seeks to eradicate intolerance and foster brotherhood among all groups and peoples.

The general public has been cordially invited to attend the program portion of the meeting which begins at 9 p. m. and to join in the refreshments that will follow. Prior to the program, the men's lodge and women's chapter will meet separately at 8:15 for elections and a short business session, according to Seymour Werbalowsky and Mrs. Arnold Pinsly, respective presidents.

Mrs. Irwin Gellen will report on arrangements for the group's annual installation dinner-dance at the joint session. This year the affair will be held at the Granite Hotel in Kerhonkson on Saturday, April 11, starting at 6:30 p. m. Reservations accompanied by a check are now being accepted. The evening will include cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, a full-course dinner, a short installation ceremony and a variety show and dancing.

Also on the calendar for the women's chapter is a party, their second this year, for patients at Castle Point Veterans Hospital, Beacon. Mrs. Max Goldberg has announced that this event will take place Sunday, April 5.

The following day, Monday, April 6, marks the start of the organization's spring rummage sale which will run three days. Mrs. Ross Ellis and Mrs. Louis Alcon, co-chairmen, will reveal completed plans at the coming meeting.

Boy Scout News Cub Scout Pack 82

The first annual blue and gold banquet of Cub Scout Pack 82 was held at Esopus Firehouse recently. Over 100 Cub Scouts, parents and friends participated at a ham supper that had been prepared by the den mothers and parents of the cubs.

Dens 1, 2 and 3, opened ceremonies followed by a grand march and crowning of the Cubmaster Norman Good, as King Rex.

The Rev. Joseph A. Wall of Sacred Heart Church, Esopus, gave the invocation. Following the dinner a number of talks were given by guests of the pack. Among them was a talk by Roger Mabie, Town Supervisor, long active in scouting in the Town of Esopus.

A collection of handicrafts made by the cubs over the past year were on display and drew much favorable comment.

Bobcat pins were presented to the following new members, Robert Joyet and Clinton Elting. Achievement awards given were as follows:

Richard Mott, silver arrow on Bear, one year pin; Paul Rodden, one year pin; George Tstisera, two year pin, Bear badge; Joseph Emerick, silver arrow on Wolf; Michael Mott, two silver arrows on Wolf; Raymond Wells, silver arrow on Wolf.

The Rev. John Vicoli of Esopus Methodist Church gave the benediction. Cub Pack 82 was formed one year ago. The officers are Cubmaster, Norman Good and Den Mothers, Mrs. Jack Travis, Mrs. Norman Good and Mrs. Joseph Emerick. The committee members are Ralph Wells, Howard Bauer, George Freer, Leonard Mott, Jack Rodden and Joseph Emerick.

Plight of Jews In USSR Discussed By Hadassah Here

A panel discussion of Jewish life behind the Iron Curtain highlighted Monday night's meeting of the Kingston Chapter of Hadassah. Mrs. David Kline, vice-president, presided over the session at Temple Emanuel.

Participating in the discussion were Mrs. Melvin Navy, program chairman and moderator; Mrs. Melvin Moses, Mrs. Alex Parnett and Mrs. Robert S. Yallum.

Mrs. Navy discussed the current migration of Rumanian Jews to Israel, with approximately 100,000 expected by the end of the year. She explained the methods by which Israel will prepare to absorb this influx, dealing with housing, vocational training and teaching of the Hebrew language.

The migration from Rumania led world Jewry to hope that the three million Jews in Russia might be the next group permitted to emigrate to Israel. Mrs. Moses described Jewish life under the Russian czars as compared to their current life under the Soviet government, pointing out similarities in persecution, pressure to assimilate and suppression of Yiddish culture. Noting that open murder and programs have been replaced with subterfuge, she said, "The Russian Jew of the present actually is less secure than his father and grandfather were."

Mrs. Parnett dealt with current Jewish life in the USSR, emphasizing that very few Jews hold influential posts in government, diplomatic and military circles. Religious life has been curtailed through strict government control of rabbinical seminaries and publication of Hebrew prayerbooks. Mrs. Parnett commented that discriminatory practices against the Jews are encouraged by the authorities because they divert general discontent from government policies.

Soviet plans for dealing with the "Jewish problem" involved attempts to establish a Jewish state in Eastern Siberia. Mrs. Yallum described plans for this ill-fated venture and methods by which Soviet citizens have managed to migrate to Israel. She suggested that Rumanian Jews were allowed to migrate because their exodus both alleviated domestic problems for the Bucharest government and served the USSR's Middle East policy. She concluded that a mass exodus of Russian Jews is unlikely, since permitting such migration would jeopardize Russia's relations with the Arab world and undermine Communist ideology.

A discussion period followed the program.

Report given during a business session included plans for Eye Bank Day, with Mrs. Louis Kornfeld as chairman; Hadassah Medical Organization benefit, with plans headed by Mrs. Herbert Gertner; advertising sales, with Mrs. Sidney Treinkman in charge; and a theater benefit, headed by Mrs. Sidney Halpern.

Plans were announced for the "April Showers," old-fashioned country auction, to be held at Hadassah's April 20 meeting. Mrs. Stanley London is chairman, with Mrs. Carl Lipton as co-chairman. A slate of officers for next year will be presented and voted upon at the April meeting.

Mrs. Maurice Crystal was hostess chairman for the meeting, assisted by the Mes. Louis Kline, A. L. Schulman, Ben Suskind and Rose Weinstein.

Burgevin's Greenhouses Flower Show On Palm Sunday

The public is cordially invited to attend the 75th annual Flower Show which will be held at Burgevin's Greenhouses on Pearl Street from 1 p. m. until 5 p. m. on Palm Sunday. The foundation for these greenhouses was laid over one hundred years ago and now occupies 3½ acres. It is one of the largest establishments of its kind in the Hudson Valley growing a variety of holiday plants and flowers. This week there will be on display a profusion of hyacinths, tulips, hydrangeas, azaleas, clematis and thousands of Croft Easter lilies in all their splendor. All the lilies grown by Burgevin's are Croft lilies with their large trumpets which may be planted outdoors to bloom again.

Valentin Burgevin, Inc., has only one retail store, opened in 1905 and located on Fair and Main Streets, four blocks from the greenhouses, where they employ four experienced designers in addition to the sales staff who take care of the gift shop.

Slater-Alward Wedding Is Announced; Ceremony Takes Place at Old Dutch Church

Miss Joan E. Slater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slater of 4 Burgevin Street, exchanged marriage vows with Robert Clayton Alward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Alward, 254 Elmendorf Street, Sunday, March 15, at Old Dutch Church.

The Rev. Arthur E. Oudemool officiated. Charles Pope was organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina length gown of imported lace over slipper satin styled with long sleeves, satin cummerbund and bow. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion fell from a coronet crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and swansonia.

Miss Jean Sickler of 64 Smith Avenue was the maid of honor. She wore a maize nylon chiffon fashioned with shirred bodice and draped neckline. The skirt was in ballerina length and a headpiece of tulle leaves held a circular veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of Rapture roses with pink swansonia. Robert Southard, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, served as best man. Ushers were Robert Slater, the bride's brother; Arnold Doty, the bride's uncle; John Forman, the bridegroom's cousin; and Jim McKeown of Syracuse.

More than 100 guests were entertained at a reception given in Bethany Hall after the church ceremony.

The bride was graduated from Kingston High School in 1957 and completed studies at the Barbizon School of Modeling in New York. She is employed at Rudolph's. Her husband is an alumnus of Kingston High School, class of 1954, completed studies at the Albany State College where he was a member of Sigma Lambda Sigma fraternity. He is now serving with the U. S. Air Force stationed in Syracuse.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a traveling ensemble consisting of a royal blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds.

LWV Membership Selects Workshop Topics for Review

The Provisional League of Women Voters of Kingston has started its workshop programs. Mrs. David Gerberg presented an outline of the Court Reform Study at a recent meeting describing the existing courts on the state level and those which affect us locally.

The two facets to be studied are: Jurisdiction—How Judges are chosen and the fiscal arrangements including salaries and budgets; and History of the Courts in New York State and their development. This will include a history of various proposed court reform movements and that the LWV and other non-partisan groups have contributed.

The next meeting on Thursday at 8:30 p. m. will be held at Mrs. Gerberg's home on Mountain Road in Hurley and the above agenda will be repeated for those who were unable to attend the initial meeting. In the future, regularly scheduled workshops will be held on the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

The "Know Your Town" workshop met at the home of Mrs. Jeremiah Sachs, chairman, recently. Mrs. Sachs announced that Mrs. Ellsworth Johnson would be the assistant chairman. The group voted to consider three aspects of the proposed survey and elected two leaders for each subject which are: Characteristics and Government of the Town, Mrs. Melvin Mone and Mrs. Eugene Abramsky, leaders; Public Health, Welfare and Sanitation, Mrs. Morton Kamen and Miss Evelyn Zelickman, leaders; and Personnel, Finance and Equipment and Political Organizations and Elections, Mrs. Martin Rubashkin and Mrs. Gerald Bills, leaders. No date has been set for the next meeting of this group but information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Jeremiah Sachs.

Sisterhood Social Is Deemed Success

Sisterhood of Congregation Agudas Achim held its "Two Penny Social," Saturday, March 14, and its anticipated success has launched the event as an annual program for the group.

The evening was highlighted by an auction with Murray Greene taking the role of auctioneer.

Awards and gifts were donated by area merchants and members of the Sisterhood.

Committee members included the Mmes. Philip Posner, chairman; Abraham Green, co-chairman; Harold Z. Rappaport, Joseph Epstein, Benjamin Suskind, Jack Epstein, Ira Trast and Meyer Basch.

Also serving on the committee were the Mmes. Jack Sheinvald, Morton Levine, Raphael Klein, Saul Schechter, Philip Kleinman and Milton Paige.

Jack Epstein, Philip Posner, Abraham Green, Ira Trast, Joseph Krasner and Sidney Black, also assisted the Sisterhood with preparations for the fete.

Home Extension Service News

Easter Ham

Ham for Easter this year will cost you less than a year ago, say Extension Specialists. You can usually expect some drop in the price of pork cuts in the spring, and this season more than typical. Forecasters of the U. S. Department of Agriculture look for 15 to 20 per cent more pork on the market during March this year than March last year. The extra-heavy supplies have already caused lower retail prices for pork cuts, including ham.

Add to the ready-made economy brought to you through lower prices by skillful use of ham, continue Extension Specialists. For example, combine ham with other foods also in plentiful supply during March. Several foods listed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture as abundant for the month go well with ham. Among those suited to the match-with-ham idea are turkey, dairy products, eggs, apples, cabbage, celery, and canned peas. The list suggests such menu items as: scalloped ham, potatoes, and cheese; turkey-ham-cheese club sandwiches; eggs Benedict; ham omelet or souffle; boiled ham with potato salad or cole slaw; grilled ham garnished with apple rings or halves.

Guides to Economy

Most retailers sell ham in several standard styles. They sell ham whole. Or they cut the whole ham crosswise and sell it as the shank half and the butt half. Or they divide the whole ham into three parts, roughly equal in weight, and sell it as shank end, center slices, and butt end.

Choose among the whole ham and its parts according to intended use and the size of the group to be served. Pointers on choosing several styles of ham follow:

Buying a whole ham. Shoppers may get a better buy on a complete ham than on its parts. A cook-before-eating ham, bone in, yields about 2½ servings per pound. Thus the 10 to 14-pound whole hams, often sold locally, provide from 25 to 35 servings of meat. The whole ham is an attractive item for Easter dinner, and it offers the advantage of cooking ahead for future meals. For the family of six or more, or for the smaller family planning to entertain for the Easter meal, the whole ham may be a wise purchase.

When buying a whole ham, you may wish to have it cut into parts at the store rather than: baking it whole and finding uses for the cooked meat. You may have the whole ham divided several ways. For example, ask to have the butt end removed and the remaining piece split lengthwise along the bone to give a boneless roast and a piece with the bone in for a boiled dinner. Or have the whole ham cut at either end to yield the butt portion as a piece to bake and the shank portion as a piece either to bake or simmer. Then the remaining center cut may be sliced thick or thin depending on whether you plan to roast, broil, or pan-broil it.

Buying the half ham. When you select a half ham, check to see if you are getting the full half, not just an end portion. If center slices are missing from the piece, you are buying an end portion rather than a full half. Center slices contain little bone and are the choice of ham halves. If you cannot tell whether the piece is a half ham, ask to have it cut for you rather than buying it pre-cut.

Stores often offer whole hams and half hams at the same price per pound. The butt half of the ham is more economical in yield of meat than the shank half but more difficult to carve. For an Easter dinner roast, the shank half will slice to advantage.

Buying ham center slices—Expect center slices of ham to cost more per pound than whole ham or other parts of ham, because the slices are the portion with the most meat per pound. Center slices may be cut to desired thickness, from ¾-inch-thick slices weighing about 1 to 1½ pounds to 2-inch-thick slices weighing about 3 pounds. Each pound of ham center slice will yield about 3 servings.

Guides to economy in use of ham. Combine ham with plentiful foods—Several foods deemed abundant and reasonable in price for Northeasterners this March match well with ham in flavor and texture and offer money-saving ideas for combinations with it. Among such plentifuls are turkey, dairy products, eggs, apples, cabbage, celery and canned peas, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The selected list of plentifuls suggests such menu items as ham omelet or souffle, scalloped ham and potatoes, turkey-ham-cheese club sandwiches, and ham with potato salad or cole slaw or apple rings or cooked celery and peas.

Store ham properly—While uncooked cured ham keeps longer than fresh pork cuts, knowing recommended storage times helps prevent loss from spoilage.

As a general rule, refrigerate all mild-cure hams and use them within a week. Keep canned hams, three pounds or larger, in the refrigerator, too.

If you decide to freeze ham, hold it for no longer than two months, says the American Meat Institute. Cured and smoked meats deteriorate rapidly in flavor, when frozen, and so should be stored for limited periods only. Canned hams should not be frozen.

Rules for Shoe Care

With so many colors and varieties of leathers, fabrics and plastics featured in the shoe fashion picture for spring and summer, women should know that what preserves one type is ineffectual for another. What's a real spruce-up for patent leather is death on a plastic pump; caring for reptile shoes is quite a different easy-does-it procedure from refurbishing smooth leathers.

After years of research on these problems, the chemists and shoe experts have assembled some worthwhile suggestions to help the ladies keep their shoe wardrobes in good order and they're all quick and easy!

The Number One admonition is this: be sure that the polish or restorer you apply is intended for the particular shoe you are working on. For instance:

PATENT LEATHER—which has lost its brightness needs a special application that lays down a completely new film to restore the original finish. Don't use any water to clean patent leather shoes. Don't use the patent finish on heels because they are celluloid covered and can be cleaned easily with a cloth. The restorer that does a rejuvenating job on the patent can dissolve the celluloid.

TO RENEW SUEDE PUMPS—never saturate suede with the renewer. Spray it on evenly and lightly over the entire surface. AFTER dust and lint have been brushed off. Be sure the shoes are thoroughly dry before wearing them. For any glazed spots, use a little dry cleaner and, if sufficiently worn, rub the spots with sandpaper very gently.

MESH FOOTWEAR—when cleaning, cover inside of the shoe with a white cloth so that when mesh cleaner is put on the shoe, the cloth helps absorb the dirt being removed by the cleaner.

FABRIC SHOES—apply the cleaner, using cloth that comes with the package and work up a suds which helps remove dirt. Wipe off foam and dirt and allow the shoes to dry thoroughly before wearing.

REPTILE SHOES—the very nature of reptile leather makes it essential to treat the shoes gently. When reptile cleaner is applied with clean cloth rub entire surface and allow to dry. Then rub up with a soft dry cloth to restore the glossy finish.

PLASTIC SHOES—many women believe that because plastic shoes have a high gloss they may be treated like patent leather. Patent dressings won't do the job because the plastic shoes need a cleaner to replace plasticizers that keep the materials alive and flexible.

Why didn't someone think of this before? At last there is an answer to the problem that has plagued homemakers for generations. Now on the market is a cleanser can with plastic tops and bottoms that cannot leave rust rings. Even if you leave it on the sink or put it in the cabinet wet, the plastic bottom cannot leave a stain.

Acker Observes 40 Years With Central Hudson

Ernest R. Acker, president of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation, marked his fortieth year of service with the local utility today. He has been the company's chief executive for the past 26 years, and is the only utility executive in the United States who has been president of both the Edison Electric Institute and the American Gas Association.

Mr. Acker joined Central Hudson on March 18, 1919 assigned to work on design and general construction in the engineering department. In October 1921 he was appointed general superintendent of the former Kingston Gas and Electric Company, a predecessor company in the Central Hudson system, and returned to Poughkeepsie in February 1925.

U-A Businessmen To Meet Tonight

The regular monthly meeting of the Ulster-Albany Avenue Businessmen's Association will be held at 8 p. m. today at Cyprus Inn.

Harold E. Macholdt, the newly elected president, will appoint committees, including a banquet committee to plan the annual event scheduled for May.

There will also be a report from the promotional committee for the stimulation of the business of the area.

With Robert Hall coming to the township (ground is already being broken) and the air full of rumors about other establishments and industries interested in the area, Macholdt urges full attendance at the meeting and wholehearted participation by the membership in the activities of the association.

Raising Bus Fares

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Western New York Motor Lines Inc. of Batavia is raising fares on the six bus routes it operates in and around Elmira.

The Public Service Commission Tuesday authorized the company to increase its prices by two cents a ride, effective Monday.

The fares have been 15 cents for a single-zone ride, 20 cents for two zones and 30 cents for three zones.

130,000 March, Million Witness Irish Day Parade

NEW YORK (AP)—Police estimate that 130,000 persons marched in the St. Patrick's Day parade Tuesday and that there were a million spectators.

It took an hour and six minutes to follow the green center stripe on Fifth Avenue from 44th St. to 96th St.

Skies were clear and blue and the weather was balmy — about 55 degrees — when the parade started.

Plane Lands in Car Lot

NEW YORK (AP)—William McCarthy, a 29-year-old flight engineer from New Brunswick, N. J., made a forced landing on a Bronx parking lot Tuesday night during a snowstorm.

He and his wife Janet, 23, were flying home from Coventry, R.I. Neither was injured. The plane was not damaged.

NEW PALTZ NEWS

Glanz Favors Banking Bill

NEW PALTZ — Herman W. Glanz, president of New Paltz Savings Bank, has endorsed the Banking Structure Bill, introduced into the State Legislature Committee to Revise the Banking Law, as a "major step forward in solving the state's banking problems."

This modernized banking bill is a statesmanlike and constructive approach to the solution of the long-standing problem of providing more adequate banking facilities for more residents of the state," Glanz said.

"It will make it possible to provide many of the expanded commercial bank savings, bank, and savings and loan association services so badly needed and wanted by many communities and people in our state," he said.

"New Paltz Savings Bank endorses the bill, and urges every citizen as well as all elements of the banking community to support it," he said.

Mr. Glanz emphasized that the overall effect of the bill upon New York State as a whole "cannot help but be salutary, because the bill is in the public interest."

"Many New York State residents," he goes on, "now deprived of full banking facilities, will be provided, through branches, with the convenience, the unparalleled safety record and favorable interest-dividend rate paid by the savings banks."

He further states that "fuller banking facilities, both savings banks and commercial, will mean more savings deposits available to finance business, industry, and particularly home construction."

"Industrial expansion, consumer lending and the construction of new homes in the years ahead must be financed by the savings of the people. All need adequate modern banking facilities to meet their mortgage needs."

"The new bill will remove artificial barriers that prevent many banks from meeting the people's banking needs where they live and work. It is true there will be more competition for many banks, but I believe that is distinctly in the public interest."

Passage of this bill will mean more business, more jobs, and a more prosperous state," he concluded.

Recreation Director Resigns Town Post

Francis (Bud) Connolly has resigned as director of the New Paltz Youth Recreation Commission.

The village and town boards, sponsors of the program, along with the chairman, Leon Keator, accept Connolly's resignation with regret.

Connolly has been active in the organization since its beginning, five years ago.

Mid-Week Lenten Service Slated

A talk by the Rev. Garrett Wulschleger on "Jonathan Edwards and Colonial America," will conclude the series on "Great Leaders and Episodes in Church History," which is being presented at the mid-week Lenten services. The services take place in the lounge of the Reformed Church Education Building during the Lenten season at 7:30 p. m., not including Holy Week. As is customary, community Holy Week services will be held in the local churches. The final meeting, the Union Communion Service, will be held at the Reformed Church on Good Friday evening.

College Professor Gets $1,000 Grant

Dr. Leo Pap, associate professor of foreign languages at the State University Teachers College, has received a $1,000 grant from the American Council of Learned Societies to continue his research on the settlement history and the sociocultural adjustments of the Portuguese ethnic group in the United States. The project, begun several years ago, was previously supported by a grant from the Instituto de Alta Cultura, Lisbon and by a summer research fellowship from the research foundation of State University last summer.

Dr. Pap is the author of "Portuguese-American Speech" (Columbia University Press, 1949). Among his most recent publications is an article, "Personal Growth Through Study of Foreign Wars," in the October issue of "Mid-Hudson Channel"; also, a nine page review of "Language: An Enquiry into Its Meaning and Function," in the October-December issue of "Language." The April issue of "Romanic Review" will carry his review of Einar Haugen's "Bilingualism in the Americas." Some months ago Dr. Pap was elected to the executive board of the Linguistic Circle of New York. Recently he addressed workshop meetings of the Mid-Hudson School Study Council and of the Dutchess County Teachers Association on problems of second language training.

Members of Study Club Hear Guest Speaker

Frederic Synder, of Kingston, spoke to over 80 members of the Study Club and their guests at their annual event recently in the school rooms of the Reformed Church. Snyder, introduced by Mrs. Gordon Pine, spoke on "The Future of the Hudson Valley." Mrs. Frank Elliott, president of the Study Club, greeted the members and their guests, and a buffet supper was served by Mrs. Clifford Hoppenstedt and her committee.

Snyder, speaking about the world of the imagination, said, "There is no limitation to what man may do. Science is advancing into the future with such strides that we must keep things worth while as we advance."

International Night To Be Held March 25

New Traffic Lights Will Be Placed At Busy Corners

A new four-phase traffic light began operating at Broadway and McEntee Street yesterday, and Mayor Edwin F. Radel today said older type lights at Broadway and East Chester Street and Hasbrouck Avenue and East Chester are due to be replaced "in the near future."

The downtown light hangs over the intersection from an aluminum suspension unit used here for the first time. The light has the modern amber interval and a "walk" sequence.

Lights were improved at several intersections last year as the more "accident prone" type lights were eliminated.

Installation of the light at Broadway and McEntee Street, said the mayor, "was aided greatly by the time and effort of Alderman Arthur Smith, of the Eighth Ward, who sponsored the original resolution in the Common Council some time ago." The council last month enacted an ordinance to cover installation of the light.

Joe Louis Re-Weds

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Joe Louis has taken his third bride—a prosperous Los Angeles criminal lawyer.

Mrs. Martha M. Jefferson and the former heavyweight champion of the world were married secretly a week ago today in Winterhaven, Calif., across the Colorado River from Yuma, Ariz. She is 46, Louis 45.

It was her fourth marriage. Louis has two children by the former Marva Trotter of Detroit. His second wife was Rose Morgan, New York City cosmetics manufacturer.

Will Make Paper With Aid From Management

MECHANICVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—The West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. plant here will resume making paper Friday, using supervisors and other salaried workers in jobs left by strikers.

The plant's 940 hourly workers, members of the United Paperworkers and Papermakers Union, struck Jan. 20 over technical language in the contract. Wages are not an issue in the dispute.

George N. Hoover, plant manager, said approximately 200 supervisors and salaried employees would work during a three-shift, seven-day-a-week schedule.

Some women clerks, he said, would fill cutting room jobs normally held by women.

Production at the plant ceased when the strike began. The plant employs 1,200 persons normally.

U. S. Is Planning 3-In-1 Vanguard

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is planning something new in satellites—a three-in-one job. It will be part of the Vanguard series and will include a balloon to study friction in space.

Dr. John P. Hagen announced plans for it Tuesday and said it will be launched soon from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

In effect, Hagen said, the new Vanguard will provide three separate satellites:

1. The empty case of the launching vehicle's third-stage rocket, a metal tube weighing about 52 pounds.
2. A 13-inch plastic sphere with an arm extending about two feet. There will be a magnetometer at the end of the arm to measure the earth's magnetic fields. This satellite will weigh about 22 pounds.
3. A 30-inch expandable balloon weighing 1 1/2 to 2 pounds.

Before launching, the balloon will be folded into a small tray at the base of the plastic sphere. When the nose of the launching vehicle separates from the final stage rocket, a gas cartridge will inflate the balloon—if all goes as planned.

The balloon, because of its larger area and lighter weight, will slow down more rapidly than the two companion satellites and thus provide a more precise measurement of drag and friction in space.

State Raises Rents

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Higher rental fees will go into effect April 1 for lands along the Barge Canal.

The State Public Works Department said Tuesday the fee will rise from $15 to $25 a year for each plot 50 by 100 feet or less. In addition, each new permit, now free, will cost $25.

The increases are expected to yield the state $23,500 more a year, bringing total revenue from the land to $55,000.

Notices have been mailed to the 1,500 persons who rent land along the canal for camps, docks, boat-houses and garages.

Deciding Votes Bill to Revise Bank Law May Be Up to Democrats

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Democrats in the Legislature might cast the deciding votes on the Republican-sponsored bill to revise the banking law, one of the top issues remaining in the 1959 session.

GOP members are split on the measure, which would allow banks in New York City to establish branches on Long Island and in Westchester and Rockland counties.

Ask Prompt Action

Republican delegations from those areas are almost unanimously opposed to the bill and some other GOP members reportedly are supporting them. GOP leaders have marked the bill for prompt action.

Democratic leaders expect strong opposition in their own ranks, but it is possible that there will be enough Democrats to favor to offset the Republicans who refuse to support the measure.

There are 92 Republicans and 57 Democrats in the Assembly. The Senate breakdown in favor of the bill is 34-24.

Other Provisions

The bill, designed by a joint legislative committee to settle a five-year controversy over bank expansion, also provides for:

1. Formation of holding companies to own and operate several individual commercial banks.
2. Limited expansion by savings banks, savings and loan associations and industrial banks.

There would be two holding company districts—New York City and Upstate. Upstate companies could operate in the city as long as their city assets did not exceed 45 per cent of their total assets. City holding companies could not operate Upstate.

Banks now are limited to operations within their own districts. There is a state freeze on formation of holding companies.

Widespread opposition has been voiced to various phases of the bill.

Bankers and government officials in New York City suburbs say it would enable large metropolitan banks to take over local institutions.

Some GOP legislators from rural counties not involved in the expansion object to big-city domination of suburban areas.

The bill proposes to allow formation of Upstate holding companies to compete with Marine Midland Corp., the only bank-holding company now operating Upstate.

Sponsors of the bill hope that its provisions to keep New York City banks out of the Upstate territory will win support of GOP legislators from that area.

Bill LaTrasse, Last of Old-Time Rail Robbers, Dies

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Bill LaTrasse, 77, last of the old-time train robbers, is dead.

After spending more than half his life in prison, LaTrasse died a free man.

Released from the Kansas Penitentiary last Dec. 30, LaTrasse came to Denver to live with a sister, Mrs. Edna Shelton. Ten days ago he entered a hospital. A kidney ailment took his life.

LaTrasse made his reputation on Christmas night, 1910, when he held up a Missouri Pacific train between Kansas City and Leavenworth, Kan. He pushed a frightened porter ahead of him through the cars and robbed the passengers of $2,000.

Captured and sent to the Kansas prison, he escaped in 1915. Then followed a Chicago robbery, a battlefield wound in World War I, another arrest and the completion of his prison term.

LaTrasse made an effort to go straight and opened a shoe repair business in Kansas City. But the experiment ended with a holdup of a gambling game and he went to the Missouri prison. Released, he went back to the Kansas prison after two men were shot in a holdup of a dice game at Parsons, Kan., in 1942. This time it was for life.

LaTrasse escaped again, but he soon was caught, a sick and broken old man.

Debate Continues Over $750,000 To Promote Milk

WATERTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—The debate over a $750,000 fund to promote milk continues today between the big dairy cooperatives and the Dairy Farmers of America and Farmers Union.

At Ogdensburg Tuesday at the first of nine meetings called by the U. S. Agriculture Department to sound out feeling on the plan, 31 producers endorsed it. Four farmers opposed the program. Approximately 200 attended.

Wilson Sweet of Canton, speaking for the recently merged Dairy Farmers group, said several million dollars had been spent on previous promotion moves with negligible results.

Allen H. Ostrander of Theresa, a member of the Producers Milk Market Development Board that would run the program, said farmers would participate voluntarily and could withdraw at any time. Ostrander is a vice president of Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative.

Under the plan, dairymen would pool one cent into the promotion fund for each 100 pounds of milk they sold. The money would be used to develop research, advertising and educational programs to put milk before the public eye.

Congress Hears Irish President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Sean T. O'Kelly of Ireland told a joint session of Congress today Ireland will work to dissipate unnecessary suspicions among nations of the world.

The 76-year-old Irish President is the first to make an official U.S. visit.

"One of the dangers that confront mankind is an exacerbated antagonism between the so-called colonial and anti-colonial countries," he said in his prepared address.

"As well as being a European country, Ireland is also a country with a long and a well-known history of stubborn resistance to foreign rule."

Sees Useful Role
"In that position, Ireland can hope to play in the United Nations and elsewhere a useful part, by helping to dissipate unnecessary suspicions, and seeking to create a better climate for international understanding."

O'Kelly, whom President Eisenhower greeted Tuesday as "the president of all of us," said his appearance before Congress is among the proudest experiences of his life.

Ike to Discuss Jobless Pay With Governors, Hawaii

WASHINGTON (AP)—Governors of eight states and Hawaii have been invited to meet with President Eisenhower Monday to discuss jobless pay.

In announcing the invitations Tuesday, the White House said the purpose of the meeting is to explore "ways to strengthen the regular federal-state unemployment compensation program."

In addition to Hawaii's governor, the invitations went to the chief executives of Florida, Illinois, Mississippi, New Jersey, West Virginia, North Dakota, Utah and Colorado. All nine are members of the executive committee of the National Governors Conference.

Call House Bill Inadequate

On Capitol Hill, meanwhile, 18 Democratic senators described the jobless pay extension bill passed by the House Monday as "almost totally inadequate."

In a letter to Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) of the Senate Finance Committee they called for committee hearings on ways to do more for the unemployed.

Byrd has set Friday for consideration of the House bill. There are indications his committee will send it to the floor promptly, probably without public hearings.

The House bill would extend the temporary federal program of extra jobless benefits for three months to next June 30.

See Little Improvement

In their letter to Byrd, the 18 senators said latest official figures show 4,749,000 persons unemployed and they said there is little prospect for improvement.

The House bill, they said, "would force tens of thousands of self-respecting workers and their families to suffer the humiliation of going on the relief rolls."

Friars Upset St. Louis, Violets Triumph, 63-48

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—"It's unbelievable. It's unbelievable." That's what Coach Joe Mulaney of Providence College kept shouting Tuesday night after his "Cinderella" team beat second-seeded St. Louis 75-72 in double overtime to reach the semifinals of the National Invitational Tournament.

New York University also advanced to Thursday's semifinals with an easy 63-48 victory over Oklahoma City. This second game of the basketball doubleheader at Madison Square Garden was strictly an anticlimax to the crowd of 14,269.

St. John's Next

Providence, which upset Manhattan 68-66 last Saturday in the last six seconds of play, now is pitted against St. John's of New York while NYU goes against top-seeded Bradley.

The Yankees are also looking for a twentieth baseman to replace the late Lou Piniella, while the Nationals are looking for a twenty-first baseman to replace the late Sam Rice.

Pender Upsets Jones in Boston, Looks for Fullmer

BOSTON (AP)—Clever Paul Pender, the fireman on sabbatical leave for one last comeback attempt, looked ahead to a bout with Gene Fullmer today in hopes of a short cut to a crack at the mid-dleweight title.

The 28-year-old Pender vaulted into ring prominence and proved his once-brilliant hands no longer are tender Thursday night by decisively outpointing rugged Ralph (Tiger) Jones in a 10-rounder at the Boston Garden.

"Now we'll sit back and wait for Fullmer's bad hand to heal," said Pender's board of strategy headed by co-promoters Johnny Buckley and Sam Silverman.

Fullmer, the former middleweight champion now rated the No. 2 contender, had to withdraw from the scheduled St. Patrick's Day meeting with Pender after suffering a hand bone fracture last night in a fight.

"He has been suspended by the Massachusetts Boxing Commission and can't fight anywhere until he meets Pender," Silverman said. "We have a contract and intend to hold Fullmer to it."

Boxing Lesson

Jones, rated the No. 5 contender by Ring and No. 9 by the NBA after victories over Joey Giardello and Rory Calhoun, accepted $7,500 to replace Fullmer. He took a boxing lesson for his money.

Pender let an educated left hand do the job for him against the durable, free-swinging veteran from Yonkers, N.Y.

Rapier-like jabs, followed by an occasional short left hook, carried the blood-spattered Brookline batter to victory. He suffered an inch-long gash from an accidental butt in the third round and blood flowed freely the rest of the way.

Referee Billy Connolly scored for Pender 99-93, judge Joe Santoro 98-92 and John Norton 99-94. The AP card had Paul in front 97-94.

Rocky Signs Bill To Lengthen Race Season in State

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller has signed bills allowing New York's flat and harness tracks to open their 1959 season early.

The Republican governor put his signature Tuesday on bills lengthening the seasons for both types of racing.

One measure adds 10 days to the flat track season this year by allowing it to open March 20, instead of March 25, and striking out a clause that limited racing to 210 days.

Friday Opening

Yonkers Raceway will open Friday for the trotters.

Officials of the New York Racing Assn., which operates all the running tracks, have said they could not be ready by March 20.

John W. Hanes, president of the NYRA, said several weeks ago that it would be impossible to open before March 25 because the many employees, horses and horsemen scattered after winter tracks could not arrive in time.

March 25 is the scheduled opening date for flat racing at Jamaica. Officials hope the extra four days can be tacked on at the end of the season.

Batavia Downs, in western New York, will open its harness season April 17, a week ahead of its original schedule.

Seven Million Dollars

The two laws are expected to yield about seven million dollars in additional revenue from pari-mutuel and admissions taxes.

William F. Mackenzie (R-Allegany County), chairman of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee, sponsored the flat-track measure.

The harness racing bill was introduced by Sen. William F. Condon and Assemblyman P. Boyce Esser, Westchester Republicans.

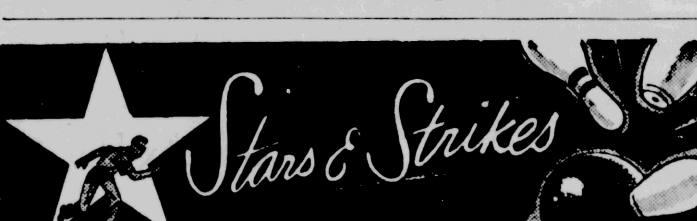

at the request of Harness Racing Commissioner George P. Monaghan.

The champion miler's cancellation drew angry protest from the meet sponsors but got support from an Amateur Athletic Union official.

Either way, Delany said Tuesday night he is sticking by his withdrawal from the Cleveland K of C meet because of "study commitments."

"I definitely will not run," said the lean, ascetic-looking Villanova student.

The Cleveland K of C had centered its meet around the mile, in which Delany was scheduled to break four minutes for the first time indoors. He set a 4:01.4 world record this month in New York and has broken four minutes three times outdoors.

Action Flagrant

John McCarthy, president of the K of C meet, called Delany's cancellation "a flagrant breach of faith—the type the association cannot countenance without taking strong action."

In New York Jim Simms, AAU secretary treasurer, took a different view.

"I do not consider Delany guilty of a breach of the rules," said Simms. "It is unfortunate that this has happened, of course, but Delany notified Cleveland of his withdrawal well in advance."

Delany husbanded his energies and won with ease Tuesday night over Peter Rose of St. John's University. Tom O'Riordan of Idaho State and Laszlo Tabors of Santa Clara, Calif., in 4:07.8.

Rosendale Babe Ruth League Roundout Valley Babe Ruth League will meet Friday 7:30 p.m. at the Rosendale Firehall, Main Street. Interested parents should attend as committee work for the coming season will be outlined.

H. Ehmke Dies In Philadelphia; Was Series Hero

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Howard Ehmke died Tuesday bringing back memories of one of baseball's most dramatic episodes.

Ehmke, owner of a tarpaulin firm, passed away at the age of 65 of an unannounced ailment. Private funeral services will be held here Friday.

Although the tall former major league pitcher won 166 games, including a no-hitter, and lost 164 in a 16-year baseball career, it was his final victory that made him a baseball legend.

Three weeks before the end of the 1929 season, Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics summoned Ehmke for a conference in the skipper's famed tower office.

So the story goes, Mack told Ehmke, a second line hurler on the powerful American league Athletics, that the pitcher was going to start the first game of the 1929 World Series.

Not only did he win, but he struck out 13 batters, erasing the series record of 12 set in 1906 by big Ed Walsh. Ehmke's victims that afternoon included Rogers Hornsby, Hack Wilson and Kiki Cuyler, twice each, plus Riggs Stephenson and Gabby Hartnett.

Ehmke was knocked out of the fifth game of the Series won by the Athletics four games to one. He pitched only 10 more innings of major league baseball, failing to win. It made little difference to him. He had won everlasting fame.

Monticello Raceway Assists Horsemen Ousted at Goshen

MONTICELLO — The first of 43 horses crowded out of training quarters at Goshen vanned to Monticello Raceway Tuesday. They were displaced by the "hurry-up" start of the harness racing season in New York, which touched off a chain reaction.

Racing season here doesn't begin until June 18, but Monticello Raceway moved up its schedule a full month to come to the rescue of nearly a score of horsemen using Goshen for winter training.

Goshen stalls are being taken over by horses moving in for the record early opening of Yonkers Raceway. Finding their horses homeless, trainers and owners turned to Monticello.

Emergency Session

They met Monday with president and general manager Franklin E. Devlin who solved their problem by ordering the immediate opening here.

"We felt obligated to put our plant at their disposal at this time," Mr. Devlin said. "Many of the horsemen had raced here last season."

At the same time he noted it would provide the local raceway with a test of winter conditions. Monticello, he said, plans staying open all year as a training track.

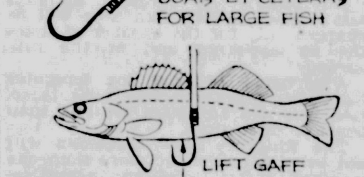

"If this proves out everyone should be happy, the track, horsemen and Sullivan County. This would provide a substantial

Industrial Case Studies Is Topic Of Engineer Club

"Case Studies in Industrial Engineering" will be presented by chapter members at the March meeting of the Mid-Hudson Chapter, American Institute of Industrial Engineers. The dinner meeting will begin at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, at the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie.

R. G. Rydberg, program chairman, has arranged for three members, R. Reih, Hercules Powder Company; K. Grissold, Sonotone Corporation, and L. Smiley, Western Printing Company to address the chapter. Each speaker will present a problem encountered in their work, analysis applied and method used for solution. A question and answer period will follow. Arrangements have been made to show the film, "The Inside Man," produced by the General Electric Company, dealing with the psychological conflicts present in today's industry.

W. D. Wilson, chapter president, has announced the appointment of E. Higgins, G. Shattuck and K. Grissold to the nominating committee. Nominations will be made at this meeting. Elections will be held at the April meeting.

Lemnitzer Named By President to Succeed Taylor

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today nominated Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer to be the new chief of staff of the Army in succession to Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor.

Lemnitzer has been vice chief of staff since July 1957. The White House said Taylor had requested that he not be renominated under other terms. His present term expires June 30.

The President reappointed the other top members of the Joint Chiefs as follows:

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. His present two-year term expires August 15.

Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations for a third term of two years ending in August 1961.

Gen. Thomas D. White, chief of staff of the Air Force for two years beyond next June 30.

The Marine Corps commandant is a member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff whenever matters concerning the corps are under consideration. The present commandant, Gen. Randolph Pate, is serving a term which runs until next January.

Internal Revenue Film Available For Local Groups

A new half-hour film, showing what makes the world's largest tax collecting organization tick, is available for showing by local civic organizations, schools and TV stations.

James A. O'Hara, District Director of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service at Albany, said he has received a limited number of 16 mm prints, both in color and in black and white.

He said requests for booking should be made to William T. Allen at Albany 5-8811 or by mail to 161 Washington Avenue, Albany 1, N. Y.

Will Visit Russia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Prime Minister Djarda has accepted an invitation from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to visit the Soviet Union this summer. Djarda told newsmen he plans to go in June if conditions in Indonesia permit him to leave the country then. The trip, he said, is designed to improve friendly relations with the Soviet Union.

Macmillan In Canada

OTTAWA (AP)—British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, on his way to talks with President Eisenhower, today urged the Western powers to frame a united policy on Germany based on "firm principles combined with a readiness to negotiate."

Macmillan arrived by plane from London. Before leaving for Washington Thursday, he will fill in Prime Minister John Diefenbaker and other Canadian officials on his Berlin crisis talks in Moscow with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Will See Dulles

Macmillan plans to see ailing U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles at Walter Reed Army Hospital before he meets with Eisenhower.

Diefenbaker and other officials were on hand to greet Macmillan, who led off his remarks with a tribute to Canadian Foreign Secretary Sidney Smith, who died Tuesday.

Macmillan said it was generally accepted that East-West negotiations on Germany must take place this summer.

Speaking first in English and switching later to French, Macmillan said he went to Moscow to feel out the ground, and he believed he had attained success.

The British leader, accompanied by Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd, hopes to convince Eisenhower that a summit meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev can solve the explosive Berlin situation without shooting.

Clears Atmosphere

Officials in Washington expressed belief Eisenhower's speech Monday, conditionally endorsing a summit meeting, had greatly improved the atmosphere for the talks with Macmillan. The President agreed to a top level meeting in the summer if a foreign ministers' conference on Germany proposed for mid-May gives promise that the government heads can agree on anything.

Macmillan's visit to Eisenhower will climax the series of conferences he has carried on with Khrushchev, French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. His aim is to work out a unified strategy and proposals with which to approach the Soviets at the foreign ministers meeting.

Checked by 3 Points

Macmillan was reported cheered by three points brought up in Eisenhower's broadcast.

1. American readiness to take part in a summit parley if such a meeting is justified. On the basis of his findings in Moscow, Paris and Bonn, Macmillan seems pretty sure developments will justify such a conference.

2. U. S. willingness to "listen to new ideas" and "to present others."

3. U. S. resolve to distinguish between negotiations and appeasement.

Vetoes Bill on Name

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—A legislative spelling lesson failed to win a passing grade Tuesday from Idaho's Republican Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

He vetoed a bill passed by Democratic majorities in both houses of the now-adjourned Legislature.

"The correct name of the Democratic party when not abbreviated is as spelled in this sentence. The spelling 'Democrat' is correct only when used to designate or refer to an individual member of the Democratic party."

Smylie said people should have the right to call a party by any name they prefer. Besides, he added, the bill might abridge the right of free speech.

Reade Theatres Make Two Appointments

Two new appointments were announced this week by Walter Reade Jr., president of Walter Reade Theatres, to fill a newly created post and a replacement position within the theatre circuit operation.

Paul Baise, veteran of 11 years with the Reade organization, has been promoted to the new post of director of specialized theatre operations. Mr. Baise has been in charge of the company's advertising and publicity for the past several years and is being promoted to his new position. Included in Mr. Baise's new duties will be the handling of the company's art cinema engagements and other specialized attractions being planned by the company.

Joining the Reade organization to assume the advertising and publicity duties is Charles T. Felleman, who comes to the company with over 15 years of experience with the exploitation department of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Ready Reserve Members Told of Rights on Jobs

Members of the Ready Reserve have employment rights which they may know nothing about according to Charles L. Culver, counselor of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and Howard C. Shurter, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency.

Counselor Culver and Director Shurter said today that the right to return to jobs previously held is granted persons enlisted in the Ready Reserve who have performed an initial three to six months of active duty for training.

The veterans' officials pointed out that reemployment rights for Ready Reservists are somewhat similar to those granted persons inducted for training and service under older laws written for World War 2 and Korean veterans.

The major difference in reemployment benefits under the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 and earlier laws lies in the time factor involved in making application for reinstatement. Reserve enlistees who served on three to six months training duty must apply for job restoration within 60 days of their release from duty. For most other veterans the deadline is 90 days.

In addition, protection rights against arbitrary discharge following reinstatement are not in the words of the counselor and director, "quite as comprehensive in the case of the Ready Reservists."

Counselor Culver and Director Shurter urged the Reserve enlistees to seek out further information on this important matter by contacting the State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency office at 32 Main Street, Kingston, or the branch office in Ellenville, Highland, Kerhonkson and Saugerties.

$674 Is Dimes

Total in Hurley

Ernest Myer, general chairman of the Township of Hurley, reported total collections for the 1959 March of Dimes to be $674.02. The area contributions are as follows:

Mrs. Howard Every, co-chairman of West Hurley, $206.30; Mrs. Wesley O'Brien, Glenford, $84; William O'Kelly, Plank Road and South Boulevard, $41.72; and Mrs. Ernest Myer, Hurley, $342.

Legion's 40th Birthday Party Attended by 120

One-hundred and twenty American Legionnaires, including 85 40-year veterans of World War 1, attended the 40th anniversary party held at Legion Post 150 Tuesday evening.

Many Legionnaires telephoned regrets they were unable to attend due to prior commitments. Past Commander Eugene B. Carey spoke on the formation of the post, pointing out that during World War 1 the post had 780 members. He urged all eligible veterans to join the post and help in community activities.

Joseph Sills Jr., sergeant of the color guard, requested all Legionnaires to parade on Memorial Day. He said transportation would be provided for those physically unable to march.

A nominating committee was named to present a recommended slate of officers for the ensuing year: Sherwood Davis, chairman, William Hanley, John Weber, the Rev. Clarence Brown and Roy Jacob, all past commanders. They will submit a slate at the next meeting Tuesday, April 14.

The Legion and auxiliary committee served refreshments, including a handsome birthday cake with 40 candles.

Chamber to Study Plan for Economy Discussion Group

The Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce has called a luncheon conference for Monday, March 23, to consider the establishment of an Economic Discussion Group.

Each group established would be limited to about 25 or 30 participants. The course of study would include a series of 17 lessons in the economics of private enterprise system.

This project was approved at the recent meeting of the board of directors of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce. Edwin T. Strong has been named as chairman of a special organization committee by Chamber president Frederick H. Stang. Strong will preside at the meeting Monday.

Harvey D. Leuin, regional manager of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce will be present Monday to outline the details of the establishment of Economic Discussion Groups. If sufficient members are interested additional groups could be established. Those interested in the planning conference on Monday have been asked to contact the Chamber office for reservations.

To Star at Met

NEW YORK (AP)—Judy Garland will star at the Metropolitan Opera House starting May 11 when her musical variety show opens a week's engagement to benefit the Children's Asthma Research Institute at Denver.

A Metropolitan spokesman said he could recall no previous occasion when a singer of popular music starred in a performance at the Met.
